

Dishforth Military Wives Choir is looking for a Musical Director

Are you...

- Someone who believes in the power of music to lift spirits, connect people, and strengthen communities?
- A warm and encouraging presence who enjoys helping others grow in confidence and ability?
- Comfortable leading a group with positivity and calm, even when things get busy?
- Open-hearted and empathetic, with an understanding or willingness to understand the unique challenges of military life?
- A natural relationship-builder, able to make both new and long-standing members feel welcome and valued?

Do you...

- Enjoy teaching, inspiring and guiding singers of all abilities in a supportive, empowering way?
- Thrive when planning ahead, preparing music programmes and rehearsals that are engaging, purposeful and fun?
- Value teamwork, collaborating with a committee and wider network to help the choir shine?
- Take pride in delivering well-prepared performances, ensuring the choir feels confident and ready to share their music?
- Bring creativity and fresh ideas, helping the choir grow, develop and enjoy new challenges?

Can you...

- Lead with enthusiasm and sensitivity, ensuring rehearsals feel like a safe, uplifting and energising space?
- Communicate clearly and kindly, offering guidance that helps singers understand, improve and feel proud of their progress?
- Spot and encourage potential, nurturing soloists or helping members step into new roles with confidence?
- Adapt your approach to suit singers with mixed levels of experience, confidence and musical background?
- Represent the choir with professionalism and warmth, upholding the spirit and reputation of the Military Wives Choirs?

Time commitment:

Weekly rehearsals Monday night: 7pm, Dishforth Airfield
10-15 performances across the wider region per year
Starting September 2026
