REIA HARD MONEY

Dan Farsht

About Dan Farsht

For over 20 years, Dan has played a pivotal role in building long-term strategic partnerships, developing market entry strategies, and shaping growth initiatives for clients across multiple business verticals. His unique ability to connect with partners and build an authentic level of trust and appreciation has led to consistently achieving customer retention rates well above the industry averages.

In 2023, Dan successfully leveraged his financial and business development expertise to scale two companies, Arc Capital Fund and REIA Hard Money. Under Dan's leadership, REIA Hard Money (the borrower-facing entity) has become a Top 5 hard money lender in the Greater Milwaukee area. Expansion plans are in place for additional markets by 2026.

Arc Capital Fund

As Co-Founder & Managing Partner, Dan is responsible for finding, vetting and onboarding new investors. Dan plays a crucial role in guiding and educating investors on the Arc Capital Private Debt Fund investment opportunity.

REIA Hard Money

As Co-Founder & Managing Partner for REIA Hard Money, Dan is responsible for cultivating and managing all borrower relationships. This includes managing the underwriting process, title company relationships, and the borrowers' journey through the duration of each loan.
