VEHICLE PARKING

If you're staying at the Residence Inn by Marriott and have a vehicle you may leave it in the parking lot. Be sure to inform the front desk that you wish to leave your vehicle while on the river trip. We recommend that you do not store luggage or valuables in your vehicle. Neither Grand Canyon Expeditions Co. nor the Residence Inn by Marriott can be responsible for damage to or loss of your vehicle or its contents, or damage to or loss of stored valuables or stored luggage and its contents.

Please consider carefully what you leave behind while on your river trip.

LUGGAGE STORAGE

The Residence Inn by Marriott will store your non-river luggage provided you are registered at the hotel. All luggage must have name tags. Our representative will have tags available at the orientation meeting for the luggage you wish to store while on the river. The Residence Inn charges $20.00 per room for luggage storage. Luggage needs to be taken to the front desk before you get on the bus the morning of your trip. It will be waiting for you at check-in at the end of the trip. Please limit your stored luggage to one bag per person if possible. Families should try to consolidate luggage since storage space is limited.

ORIENTATION MEETING

Our representative(s) will meet you at 8:00 PM the evening before your trip. The meeting is held at the Residence Inn by Marriott in a room off the hotel lobby. The meeting should last 30-45 minutes. At the meeting our representative will hand out waterproof river bags in which to pack your personal gear and will go over logistics for the following day. Our representative will also explain procedures for storing valuables and luggage at the hotel and answer any questions you may have. We have a small store in the meeting room where you may purchase last minute items that you would like for your trip and some fun souvenirs!

THE MORNING YOUR TRIP DEPARTS

You should be packed, dressed in your "river clothes" and ready to go by 4:45 AM the morning of your trip. The bus leaves at 5:00 AM from the Residence Inn by Marriott. The morning of the trip be sure to allow enough time to check out of your room and get your luggage to the front desk for storage. You will receive a sack breakfast at the orientation meeting that you can bring on the bus with you. Coffee will be available in the lobby in the morning. You will board our chartered coach at the front entrance of the Residence Inn by Marriott. It's a 5-6 hour drive (including two stops) to Lees Ferry, so please be prompt.

During the ride to Lees Ferry, we will stop at a Wal-Mart and a small store where you may purchase snacks and last-minute items. Upon arrival at Lee's Ferry, you will meet your crew. There will be a safety orientation and you will be issued your personal flotation device (PFD). You will then board the boats and go downstream for lunch.

THE LAST DAY OF THE TRIP

Mid-morning on the last day of your trip you will be met by a speed boat that will transport you across the calm headwaters of Lake Mead to Pearce Ferry, AZ. Upon arrival at Pearce Ferry, you will be:

- met with a company representative,
- receive a duffel bag to transfer all of your personal belongings into
- board a chartered coach that will take you back to the Residence Inn by Marriott.
- You will receive a lunch on the bus and the bus will make a stop at a small store where you can purchase snacks and drinks.

The bus ride is about 3.5 hours. The bus usually arrives at the Marriot between 3 and 4 PM. Since delays can happen, we suggest any plans or flights not be scheduled prior to 8:00 PM.

CANYON TEMPERATURES

Temperatures in the canyon vary depending on location, season, and year. Average temperatures are:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|--|
| April Daytime 70°-80° Nighttime 50°-70° | May Daytime 80°-90° Nighttime 60°-70° | June-Aug Daytime 90°-110° Nighttime 60°-80° | Sept Daytime 80°-90° Nighttime 60°-70° |
|---|---|---|--|

Keep in mind that these are average temperatures, in the hotter months the inner canyon can reach temperatures over 115 degrees. Frequent swimming and splashes from the rapids can help to keep you comfortable. The water at Lees Ferry can be quite cold because it is released from the bottom of Glen Canyon Dam (Lake Powell) just 15 miles upstream. Water temperatures in recent years have ranged from 45 degrees to 70 degrees Fahrenheit. Sunny days and incoming side streams help increase water temperatures as you travel downstream.

WE SUPPLY

We supply chairs, cots, sleeping equipment (including sleeping bag, 3/4 length foam pad, ground cloth packed in a waterproof bag) and a second waterproof bag for your personal gear (12 x 27 or 2.25 cubic feet/63 liters). We also provide a waterproof metal camera case (5 ½ x 7 x 11) on our motorized expeditions that is suitable for camera equipment or personal items you wish to have accessible during the day. Guests on dory trips will receive a waterproof bag that is 16 liters (8.2" in diameter and 20" tall) for day use. All dishes, eating utensils, meals and non-alcoholic beverages are provided.

There is a community day bag on each motorized raft where you can store your rain gear, extra shoes, water bottle, backpack and other loose items that you need access to during the day. You can also clip your backpack onto the boat. On the dory trips there is storage available in hatches on the boats.

ABOUT OUR MENU

We furnish lots of good, fresh food on our river trips and anticipate hearty eaters. Meals consist of a variety of balanced dishes. Aiming for universal appeal, we avoid highly spiced foods.

Breakfasts are bacon, ham or sausage, eggs with muffins, pancakes or French toast. Fruit and cereal, juice, coffee, cocoa and tea are available each morning. Lunches are picnic style. They consist of a selection of delicatessen meats and cheeses, pickles, tomatoes, lettuce, onions, and olives. You make your own sandwich with a choice of whole-grain breads. Chips, cookies, fruit, nuts, and candy are served and a choice of drinks (juice, soda pop, water) are available.

Dinners are filling, as they should be after an activity-filled day. Main dishes include filet mignon, Mahi-Mahi, Mexican dinner, shrimp, pork filet, chicken, and pasta. Each night we serve a salad, either tossed green, fruit or vegetable. We also serve a cooked vegetable such as corn, zucchini, tomatoes, and potatoes. Desserts consist of Dutch oven cakes or cobblers, pound cake, fruit and cookies. A selection of cold beverages is always available.

We are able to accommodate many special diets and allergies. We may be able to provide some alternative foods for you or you may bring special food or beverages and we can store it. Please contact our office for more information and be sure to let us know if you have dietary needs or allergies.

BEVERAGES AND DRINKS

GCE provides an assortment of soda, juice and seltzer water. Drinks provided may include Coke, Diet Coke, Sprite, Diet Sprite, Root Beer, Lemonade, Gatorade, and seltzer water. Juices may include apple, orange, cranberry, grape, grapefruit and V8. The crew will pack an assortment of drinks. If there is something specific you want please let the office know. You are welcome to bring your own if there is a specific soda or drink you prefer.

Grand Canyon Expeditions does not provide alcoholic beverages. You are welcome to bring your own beer, wine and spirits. Please only bring plastic, aluminum or boxed beverages: NO GLASS. We suggest purchasing wine and spirits in Las Vegas the day before your trip. Beer can be purchased in Las Vegas or at the Wal-Mart stop the first day of your trip. Please note that the Wal-Mart does not carry wine or spirits.

There is no limit to the amount of beverages that you can bring and they are not included in the 20 pound weight limit. There is no way to resupply after your trip is launched. Please drink responsibly and remember that the legal drinking age in Grand Canyon National Park is 21.

BE COMFORTABLE

Durable, comfortable clothing in good condition is important on the trip. When choosing clothing, look for loose-fitting, light-weight, quick-drying apparel. While in camp, lightweight pants, shorts & shirt work well. Light colored clothing is best. The sun reflects off lighter colored clothing which will help to keep you cooler during hot summer days. Protection from the sun is important! Bring a good supply of sun-screen, wide brimmed hat, long-sleeved shirt and long pants. Sleepwear should be comfortable and may consist of a loose pair of shorts and top.

The first day of the trip you may wish to wear a combination of clothes which will allow you to take off or put on items as needed. Multi-sport shoes (Keen, Chaco and Teva), sandals or tennis shoes which are comfortable when wet are recommended; a shirt with long sleeves and long pants with your swimming suit underneath give flexibility in adjusting to temperature changes.

RAIN SUIT/ SPLASH SUIT

We recommend that you bring a rain suit - not just for use during inclement weather, but primarily as protection while on the boat because the river is cold and the rapids are numerous. If you're on the river when the weather is cool or are going through rapids in early morning or late afternoon shade, a rain suit will help to protect you from cold splashes.

There can be wear and tear on a rain suit used on a motorized or dory trip, so we suggest that you purchase a good quality suit. Usually, a coated nylon or Gortex suit will hold up well. Lightweight vinyl suits generally do not last more than a few days as they rip easily.

FOOTWEAR

Proper footwear is important for this trip. On many canyon hikes you may wade across or walk up streams. Boots can be ruined and may not dry quickly. Some people prefer multi-sport sandals/thongs while on the rafts. Remember that some sandals and thongs do not provide good traction when climbing on or off the rafts or climbing on rocks and steep terrain. If you decide to use sport sandals, be sure they have good traction. Open-toed shoes provide no protection from cactus thorns. The most practical shoes are sturdy tennis or athletic/water shoes. Finally, consider what you bring as a second pair of shoes in case the first pair is lost or falls apart.

Keen™, Chaco™ and Teva™ are companies that offer several types of footwear which work well for wearing on the boat and while hiking.

CAMERAS

Waterproof digital cameras are recommended. Anticipate taking lots of photos and bring along extra memories cards and batteries. External battery packs are recommended for charging batteries. These are available at many retailers including Amazon. We do not have the facilities to recharge batteries. We provide a camera box to store your camera and other items you need access to during the day. We recommend you bring a small towel or a piece of foam to pad the box for your camera. Many of our guests prefer to use their cell phone camera. We recommend a Aqua Case or similar for it. We sell the Aqua Case in our store at the orientation meeting.

Preston F.

Although accidents such as dropping your camera or getting it wet seldom occur, the possibility does exist. We suggest that you have insurance to cover such accidents if they occur. Blowing sand and water can and do damage cameras. Grand Canyon Expeditions will not be responsible for loss or damage to personal gear. If you are concerned about damage to expensive camera equipment, we suggest bringing a Pelican Case for extra protection. Cases can be purchased from www.pelican.com or www.nrs.com.

CONTACT LENSES

Life on the river involves camping on sandy beaches and this can cause problems for those who wear contact lenses. Water, wind, and blowing sand can make contacts uncomfortable. We suggest bringing glasses in the event you need to take your contacts out to be comfortable.

MEDICATIONS

If you have daily medications that are critical to your health or carry an epi-pen it is a good idea to bring along an extra supply. We can provide cool storage if needed.

MONEY

There will be stops on the way to Lee's Ferry and on the way back to the hotel from Pearce Ferry. You may want cash or a credit card to purchase snacks and other items at these stops.

You may also want to bring cash for a gratuity for your crew. Tips are greatly appreciated and are at your discretion. Tips should go directly to your trip leader and is split among the crew. A suggested guideline is 10% of the cost of the trip. If you are not comfortable carrying cash you can also tip your guides with a check. Checks should be made out to your trip leader and not to GCE.

FISHING

You are welcome to bring your fishing rod along. It should be able to collapse down for storage when not in use. Please purchase a fishing license in advance. Licenses can be purchased online at: <https://www.azgfd.com/license>. Please print your license and be sure to bring it with you. Please reach out to us for more fishing information.

SMOKING

Smoking is not allowed while on board any of our boats. Please smoke downwind and away from the rest of the group. Butts must be properly disposed of. Be prepared to follow crew instructions on appropriate locations to smoke. Please note that although marijuana is legal in Arizona and Nevada, Grand Canyon National Park is federal land and Marijuana use is illegal.

ONE TRIP PER YEAR

Due to limited availability, the National Park Service has limited use in the popular Lees Ferry to Diamond Creek section of the Colorado River to one recreational river trip per individual each calendar year. Because of this regulation, Grand Canyon Expeditions cannot accept a reservation from any individual who has or will participate in any other full or partial canyon commercial or noncommercial river trip within the same calendar year. If you have already completed or have plans to participate in any other Grand Canyon River trip this year and would like to go again, please respect your fellow boaters by waiting until next year or sometime thereafter to book your next trip. Grand Canyon National Park's one-trip-per-year rule is strictly enforced.
