

St. Philip Knights of Columbus

Halloween for the Hungry

What: A Charitable Food Drive collecting non-perishable food items

When: Halloween evening between 5:00 PM and 5:45PM

Who: Families and teens completing service hours

Why: To support local food pantries through charitable service

- Volunteers will go door to door, if you prefer you can leave the items outside
- All proceeds will be split between the St. Philip Church Food Bank and Food For Others in Merrifield.
- Any monies collected will be used to purchase food items to donate.

Halloween for the Hungry was started in the early to mid-2000s by a group of high school students in Chantilly, VA, who saw a need to support the local community. To date, it has grown to multiple locations around the DMV, collecting multiple tons of food each year.

This Halloween will be the St. Philips Knights of Columbus' inaugural year with the intent of picking up the legacy.

Please consider supporting the local community as we serve the needy.
