

Financial Literacy Credential

Awarded as a digital badge

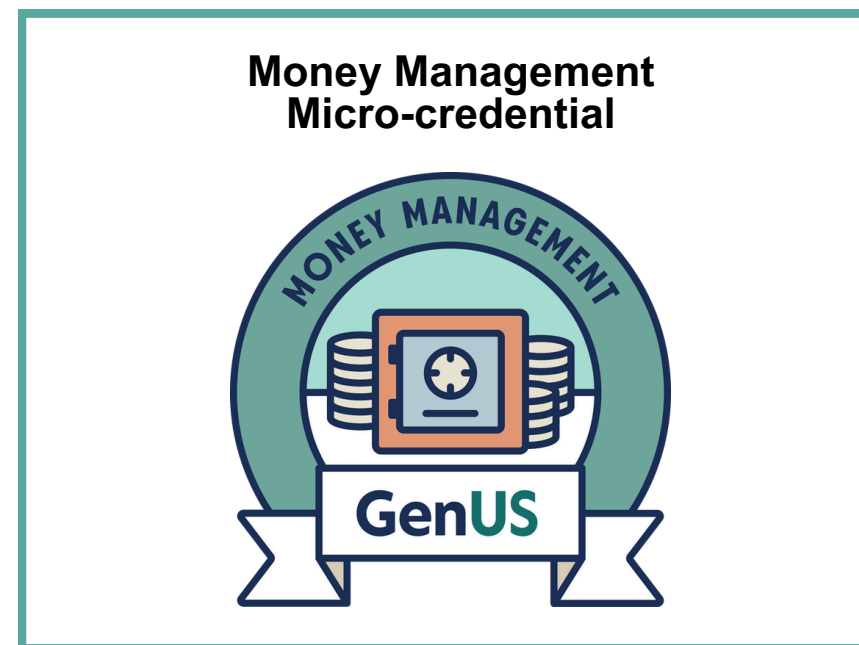

These Micro-credentials stack to earn a Financial Literacy Credential. A Micro-credential is awarded as a digital badge. Students submit Evidence of Learning for the required skills to earn a Micro-credential.

Financial Flexibility Micro-credential

Skills

-  Applying Financial Problem Solving Strategies: Demonstrate the ability to make complex financial decisions through application of problem solving strategies.
-  Understanding Financial Problem Solving: Demonstrate understanding of problem-solving strategies as they relate to personal financial problems.

Money Management Micro-credential

Skills

-  Budgeting Principles: Demonstrate ability to utilize basic lifelong budgeting principles.
-  Foundations of Economics: Demonstrate an understanding of foundational economics principles and their impact on personal finances.
-  Savings & Investing: Demonstrate an understanding of savings and investing and their role in budgeting.

School & Work Finances Micro-credential

Skills

-  Knowledge of Post-Secondary Training Programs: Demonstrate the ability to navigate post-secondary training affordability, tuition and fees, and financial aid options.
-  Post-Secondary Training Goal Setting: Demonstrate the ability to plan and budget for post-secondary training costs.