Mary, Star of Evangelization

At this moment in history, the Church has unprecedented opportunities to bring the Gospel of Jesus Christ to all people and nations. By her vocation as the Virgin Mother of God, Mary is a singular model for the Church's mission of evangelization and catechesis. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, she bore the only-begotten Son of God, whose Word made flesh, into the world in a wholly unique and unrepeatable proclamation. She was her Son's first catechist. She formed him by her human knowledge of the Scriptures and of God's plan for the salvation of his people, by her habit of daily prayer to the Father, and by her resolute surrender to his will. Mary was not only Christ's first teacher but also Christ's first disciple. Within the intimacy of family life, Christ formed her in knowledge of his divine Sonship and of his obedience to the will of his heavenly Father. Through her intercession with Christ during the wedding at Cana, "his disciples began to believe in him" (John 2:11).

"At this moment in history, the Church has unprecedented opportunities to bring the Gospel of Jesus Christ to all people and nations."

Traditionally the Church has understood that Mary was present with the other disciples in the upper room when "there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the holy Spirit" (Acts 2:3-4). As the "Virgin of Pentecost," Mary is truly the Mother of the Church. Through her union with Christ and her unique proclamation of his Gospel, she continually draws believers to the Church and participates in the sacrifice of her Son and in the Church's work of salvation. The faithful encounter Jesus through Mary. She is the certain path to Christ. "By her complete adherence to the Father's will, to his Son's redemptive work, and to every promotion of the Holy Spirit, the Virgin Mary is the Church's model of faith and charity" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 967). She is an incomparable sign of hope for the Church. . . Her pilgrimage of faith leads the pilgrim People of God on their journey to encounter the Lord and finally into communion with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
