TWENTY-FOURTH
SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

September 12, 2021

What an impressive celebration of the First Filipino (Tagalog) Mass ever to be held at St. Augustine Church (SAC) in South San Francisco. For all of us who attended the Tagalog Mass last Sunday at 5:30 PM, it felt like we were transported back to the Philippines as SAC's Praise and Glorify Choir rendered uplifting hymns in Tagalog that contributed to the vibrancy of the liturgical celebration. And the homily delivered in impeccable Tagalog by Father Ray Reyes, pastor of SAC, triggered a walk down memory lane. He linked the message of the Gospel wherein Jesus healed a deaf and mute man to a popular song in Tagalog that describes the hardships experienced in life by the blind, the mute and the deaf. The title of the song in Tagalog is “Bulag, Pipi,

ANG PAGDIRIWANG NG BANAL NA MISA

Ika-23 Linggo sa Karaniwang Panahon

at Bingi,” popularized by Filipino singer, Freddie Aguilar, who won the grand prize in the 2nd Metro pop Music Festival in 1979. Aguilar vocalized the song but he was not the composer. The composer, Roberto “Snaffu” Rigor, who passed away in 2016, imparted a very profound message in that song – that normal people who have no disabilities in life can be considered “blind, mute and deaf” if they don’t use God-given faculties to attain God’s purpose. The song further elaborates that the physically-impaired are not different from able-bodied persons for there are some of them who are considered blind because they are blinded by power and wealth, considered mute for not speaking the truths, and considered deaf for not hearing and helping the cries of their fellow citizens. The Mass in Tagalog at St. Augustine Church will be celebrated every first Sunday of the month at 5:30 PM. You may watch the recorded livestreamed first Tagalog Mass at SAC by clicking on this link – <https://fb.watch/7SoZhDOE-k/>

Thirsting for God? RCIA is for you.

Start your faith journey with the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) and receive the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Communion.

If you would like to learn about our Catholic faith and want to understand who Jesus is and the role he plays in your life, RCIA is the answer. The classes are held virtually on Saturday mornings from 9:00 – 10:00 a.m., with a monthly in-person gathering where you attend mass with the entire class. The class is taught by Deacon Nestor Fernandez, along with very experienced catechists who will guide you, answer your questions, and accompany you on your journey.

If you know someone who is already Catholic but has not been confirmed or received Holy Communion, they may be thirsting too!

For answers to your questions and/ or to sign up for this year's RCIA classes please call Deacon Nestor Fernandez at 415-672-5252, or by email at DeaconNestor@comcast.net, or call parish office at 650-873-2282.
