Any who give you a cup of water to drink
because you belong to Christ,
amen, I say to you,
will surely not lose their reward.

On Catechetical Sunday last week, 44 catechists, along with members of the RCIA team at St. Augustine parish, were commissioned for their ministry in a beautiful ceremony presided by Father Ray Reyes. The theme of Catechetical Sunday this year is “Say the Word and My Soul Shall be Healed.” The theme acknowledges that more than ever, our world now is in need of healing. During the Commissioning, Father Ray reflected on the role each person plays, by virtue of Baptism, in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel. Father Ray explained that the word catechesis comes from the Greek meaning “to echo the teaching.” It means that catechesis or the teaching of the faith is an interactive process in which the catechist echoes God’s presence and goodness that already exist in each person from the moment he/she was conceived. That parents and guardians are also catechists. That they are the first and primary teachers of the faith for their children.

On behalf of St. Augustine parish, Father Ray thanked Sister Nona Barairo, SFCC, the Director of SAC’s CCD, her staff, Linda Gamboa and Mike Gotuaco, and all the catechists for the important role they play in evangelization, especially in providing religious education to children who attend public schools. After the Commissioning, Deacon Nestor Fernandez and Deacon Virgil Capetti distributed the Special Commissioning certificates to the catechists.

ALL CLASSES PROVIDED VIRTUALLY THROUGH ZOOM*NATIONAL MIGRATION WEEK - Sep 20 to 26, 2021*Holy See's observation of the World Day for Migrants and Refugees (WDMR) on Sep 26

The theme for this year's WDMR is "Towards an Ever Wider We", which Pope Francis drew from his encyclical "Fratelli tutti." He emphasized in his annual WDMR message that such a focus calls on us to ensure that "we will think no longer in terms of 'them' and 'those', but only 'us'" (Fratelli tutti, no. 35) and this universal "us" must become a reality first of all within the Church, which is called to cultivate communion in diversity. In general, National Migration Week is meant to emphasize the ways in which the migration question is important for the Catholic Church in the United States.

The Holy Father calls us to embrace and express the Church's catholicity—her universality—'according to the will and grace of the Lord who promised to be with us always, until the end of age.'

2021 National Migration Week Prayer

Loving Father, We thank you for the gift of children And for the joy and love that they bring into our lives. Protect with your fatherly care all children who face hardship. In particular, we pray for unaccompanied migrant children who are alone, For migrant children separated from parents who have been placed in detention, For those who have lost loved ones due to violence, And for those who are trapped in situations of exploitation. Open all of our hearts to immigrant and refugee children in need. Show us how we can protect and comfort them. Give us the wisdom to know how we can help. Give us courage to defend them against those who would harm them. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, One God forever and ever. Amen.
