OUR MISSION. We live God's Word and continue His work.

PARISH LIFE IN ST. AUGUSTINE CHURCH

St. Augustine parishioners certainly know how to inject FUN and EXCITEMENT in celebrating any parish event, and the parish picnic/ministry fair held Saturday was no exception! Thanks to the impressive organizational skills of the planning committee chaired by Mila Braganza and Romy Quevedo, the superb support of the coordinators, and the participation of the various ministries, the parish picnic was indeed a success. With the sun shining all day, the Westborough Park was the perfect setting for the revelry and amazing talent displayed by members of Praise and Glorify Choir, led by the program host, Joel Faustino. They took center stage and kicked off the program with an impressive musical dance. Not to be outdone, the members of the Hospitality Ministry impressed us with their boundless energy and dancing skills by performing the popular “Iko Iko” line dance. Did you know the KOC members showed up at the park and started preparing hamburgers and hot dogs for grilling in the wee hours of the morning? Our special thanks to KOC for preparing the food and to the members of SVdP for efficiently managing the check-in and ensuring everyone got the food and drink tickets.

As promised, the afternoon program was indeed packed with lively games and entertainment. Father Martin surprised us by winning both the ‘egg and spoon’ and the ‘sack’ race! The Children’s Choir of SAC garnered the ‘Best Ministry Fair Display’ and the Fil-Am Society won the ‘Most Creative Table’ award! The winners of the games and raffles received amazing awards consisting of cash prizes, iPhone watch 6, plaques, and gift certificates.

To cap off the entertainment, Father Ray, Father Martin, Deacon Nestor and Brother Maurice performed a beautiful rendition of the Tagalog song, “Dahil sa ‘Yo” followed by “You Got a Friend.” Father Ray thanked Mila Braganza and Romy Quevedo for their leadership and encouraged them to continue to come up with exciting opportunities to celebrate the year-long Golden Jubilee celebration of St. Augustine parish. Mila Braganza thanked the following coordinators: Jinkee Raymundo and Sally Ortiz (SVdP); Manny Almojuela and Oliver Berber (KOC); Rosabel Santander and Rita Liu (HM); Khay and Deo Acosta (Ministry Fair); Joel Faustino and Agnes Lombos (Live Entertainment). What a lovely way to make up for the lost opportunities to celebrate the Jubilee activities during the pandemic and welcome the new normal at St. Augustine’s! The video of the SAC picnic is posted on the SAC Facebook!
