Saint Lorenzo Ruiz was born around the year 1600 in Binondo Manila in the Philippines. He was the son of a Chinese father and a Filipino mother. Both were Christians and took care to raise Lorenzo as a Catholic. He served in happily in his parish church as an altar boy and calligrapher. As a young man, Lorenzo joined the Dominican Confraternity of the Most Holy Rosary. Later, he married a woman named Rosario. The couple had three children, two sons and one daughter.

In 1636, Lorenzo was accused of murder. To protect his safety, he fled home and found refuge on board a ship with three Dominican priests and a leper. The ship departed the Philippines on June 10, 1636, bound for Okinawa. Lorenzo was arrested by Japanese officials for the crime of being a Christian and ordered to recant his faith. He refused and was imprisoned for two years. On September 27, 1637, Lorenzo & his companions were taken to Nagasaki, tortured and killed for not recanting their faith.

Lorenzo was beatified by Pope John Paul II on February 18, 1981. The beatification ceremony was held in the Philippines making it the first beatification ceremony ever held outside the Vatican. His canonization took place at the Vatican on October 18, 1987. His feast day is September 28.
