SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER (Divine Mercy)

Cycle A

Acts 2:42-47
Psalm 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24
1 Peter 1:3-9
John 20:19-31

The Gospels tell us that Jesus appeared to the disciples on several occasions after they discovered that his tomb was empty. Part of the mystery of Jesus' Resurrection is that he appeared to his disciples not as a spirit but in bodily form. The bodily form was not one that the disciples recognized though. In John's Gospel, Mary of Magdala does not recognize that the figure standing before her is Jesus until he speaks to her. In Luke's Gospel the disciples who meet Jesus on the road to Emmaus do not recognize him until he breaks bread with them. The resurrected Jesus had a physical presence, but the disciples couldn't recognize Jesus unless he allowed them to. His resurrected body, nonetheless, showed the marks of his crucifixion.

From readings such as today's Gospel, we also see that in his resurrected body, Jesus seems to be free of physical constraints. He appears to the disciples even though the doors were locked.

Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace and the gift of the Holy Spirit. In doing so, Jesus commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." During the meeting, Jesus also shows the integral connection between forgiveness of sins and the gift of the Holy Spirit.

The story of Thomas illustrates our Christian experience today: We are called to believe without seeing. In fact, all Christians after the first witnesses have been called to believe without seeing. Thomas's doubt is hardly surprising; the news of Jesus' appearance was incredible to the disciples who had seen him crucified and buried. Thomas's human nature compelled him to want hard evidence that the Jesus who appeared to the disciples after his death was indeed the same Jesus who had been crucified. Thomas is given the opportunity to act on that desire. He is our witness that Jesus is really risen.

Our faith is based on the witness of the Church that has preceded us, beginning with Thomas and the first disciples. Through Baptism we receive the same Holy Spirit that Jesus brought to the first disciples. We are among those who are "blessed" because we believe without having seen.

2026 ARCHDIOCESAN ANNUAL APPEAL (AAA)

The Archdiocesan Annual Appeal provides parishioners throughout our Archdiocese with 93 parishes a unique opportunity to come together as one. The AAA is essential to the work of the Archdiocese of San Francisco. We are spread over the counties of Marin, San Francisco, and San Mateo and are one Archdiocese, collaborating in the ongoing mission of evangelization and education.

The theme for this year’s Annual Appeal is from Isaiah 40:31, “Those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength.” As Catholics, we use our talents and provide our gifts for God’s Glory. One way we vividly do so is by supporting the programs and ministries of the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal.

Please contact the OFFICE OF MISSION ADVANCEMENT with any questions or assistance during the Appeal: MissionAdvancement@sfarch.org
