Psalm 33:1, 12, 18-19, 20-22

Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-119 or 11:1-2, 8-12

Luke 12:32-48, or 12:35-40

Jesus' instructions on how to be ready for the coming judgment continue in the stories and sayings found in today's Gospel. We are not to be like the greedy rich man in last Sunday's Gospel who planned to store his great harvest in barns rather than share it. We are, rather, to share our wealth with those in need. The antidote for the anxiety brought on by the coming judgment is to relinquish our possessions and provide for the needs of others. Our treasure will be in heaven where it will not wear out or be destroyed.

The other major way to be ready for the coming judgment is to be watchful. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about watchfulness to begin making this point. We must be like servants waiting for the master's return from a wedding banquet, which, even now, can last for a few days in the Middle East. We must be watchful so that even if the master comes after midnight, we will be ready for him. This is what the coming of the Son of man will be like.

Peter asks if this parable is meant for the apostles or for the large crowd that has gathered to listen to Jesus. Without answering Peter's question, Jesus responds with another parable about servants awaiting the return of their master. It begins with a question, "Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward whom the master will put in charge of his servants to distribute the food allowance at the proper time?" This parable adds to the theme of watchfulness; it explains how to wait and reminds us of the reward for the faithful follower at the heavenly banquet after the judgment. It is addressed to the apostles, then it could also be addressed to leadership in the early Church. Either way, the parables remind us that we should be found doing our jobs when the master arrives. If we do our jobs, our reward will be great. But if we relax, neglect our duties, and begin to act like the greedy rich man — eating, drinking, and making merry — we will not have a place in the kingdom. Watchfulness means living in such a consistently moral and obedient way that we are always ready to give an account to God of how we have lived.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES

Our gardens provide our clients with a therapeutic and healing green space and an opportunity for them to participate in the care and on-going maintenance of the plants and flowers.

Groups find that our projects are an enjoyable way to cultivate working relationships and camaraderie while making a difference in the community.

No skills are needed, just a desire to donate your time and be of service. Project duration is typically 2-4 hrs. All supplies and instructions are provided.

Programs with Garden and Spruce Up Projects:

Catholic Charities Treasure Island Child Development Center (TICDC) strives to create a collaborative child-centered environment where everyone contributes and feels taken care of.

The TICDC community reflects the multi-cultural character of San Francisco. We encourage participation and champion individuality, celebrate differences, and work to foster an atmosphere of respect and care.

Catholic Charities Adult Day Services SF is a licensed program providing a safe, supervised, therapeutic, and friendly environment for seniors and adults with disabilities who experience losses in physical function, memory, or social support.

Catholic Charities San Francisco Boys' Homes is a longstanding community-based program serving adjudicated youth between the ages of 13-17. A short-term residential therapeutic program (STRTP), we have a residential home in San Francisco where at-risk adolescents receive the specialized support, understanding, compassion, and services they need to restore trust, integrate into their communities, and transform their lives.

Thank you for making a difference!

THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL, ST. AUGUSTINE CONFERENCE CORNER

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In this Gospel, Jesus says, "Sell your belongings and give alms. Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy."

Please help the Society of St. Vincent de Paul bring respite and hope to the elderly who are lonely and forgotten, and you will indeed find "an inexhaustible treasure in heaven!"

Have ears to hear the "cries of the poor"

Have eyes to "seek and find the forgotten, the suffering or the deprived"

Have hearts that "bring God's love to the poor" through their generosity and donations.

SAMARITAN HOUSE

I am writing from Samaritan House of San Mateo County with a great volunteer opportunity for parishioners to assist in the early evening with dinner service at Safe Harbor Shelter, located in South SF. This is a great way to get involved with volunteering on an ad-hoc basis and signing up is very easy. Do you think this can be shared somehow with the church community? Let us know if a link like this is sufficient or if a flyer of some kind might work better and we can look into having one made for the purpose of recruitment.

This is the link where people that want to help can simply sign up ad-hoc to serve dinner on nights of their choosing at the shelter (age 18+ only): <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C054DA4A722A0F4C61-57208723-samaritan#/>. We are really trying to get the word out about this opportunity, so any other ideas on who we can reach or avenues for advertising are appreciated.
