FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Cycle A

Acts 2:14a, 36-41
Psalm 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6
1 Peter 2:20b-25
John 10:1-10

This fourth Sunday of the Easter season is sometimes called Good Shepherd Sunday because in each of the three lectionary cycles, the Gospel reading invites us to reflect on Jesus as the Good Shepherd. In each cycle the reading is from the tenth chapter of John's Gospel. This chapter sets the framework for Jesus' teaching about himself as the Good Shepherd.

Today's reading falls between the stories of Jesus' healing of the man born blind and the raising of Lazarus. Both stories were proclaimed in the Gospels found in this year's season of Lent. Following the controversy that ensued when Jesus healed the man born blind, Jesus directs his allegory about the sheep and the shepherd toward the Jewish religious leaders of his time, the Pharisees.

Throughout John's Gospel the Pharisees fail to accept Jesus' ministry and teaching. They show themselves to be "robbers and thieves" because they try to lead the sheep without entering through the gate, Jesus. Through these metaphors, Jesus is telling his listeners that those who follow him and his way will find abundant life. He identifies himself both as the shepherd and the gate. The shepherds who are faithful to him are the ones whom the sheep (Jesus' disciples) should follow.

The relationship between the sheep and their shepherd is based on familiarity. Sheep recognize their shepherd and will not follow a stranger. At the end of the day, shepherds lead their sheep from pastures to a common gated area called a sheepfold. There, one shepherd protects all the sheep until the next day when each shepherd returns to lead his own sheep to pasture. As shepherds move among the sheep, the sheep follow only their shepherd.

Today's Gospel also gives us the opportunity to reflect on Christian leadership. Jesus' words suggest to us that those who will lead the Christian community will be known by their faithfulness to Jesus. The leaders will recognize that Jesus is the gate for all the sheep and that having a good relationship with Jesus is the primary characteristic of a Christian leader. Jesus' allegory also suggests that faithful Christian leadership requires a good relationship with the community: the shepherd knows his sheep, and they know him. Christian leaders follow the example of Jesus, the Good Shepherd, by being faithful to him and by being a good shepherd.

2026 ARCHDIOCESAN ANNUAL APPEAL (AAA)

The Archdiocesan Annual Appeal provides parishioners throughout our Archdiocese with 93 parishes a unique opportunity to come together as one. The AAA is essential to the work of the Archdiocese of San Francisco. We are spread over the counties of Marin, San Francisco, and San Mateo and are one Archdiocese, collaborating in the ongoing mission of evangelization and education.

The theme for this year's Annual Appeal is from Isaiah 40:31, "Those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength." As Catholics, we use our talents and provide our gifts for God's Glory. One way we vividly do so is by supporting the programs and ministries of the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal.

A JOYFUL RETURN

Welcome back to your parish family,

Father Raymund M. Reyes

With grateful hearts, we welcome Father Ray back to the altar. Your journey of healing after your successful kidney transplant has been a testament to faith and resilience. We thank God for your recovery and for the gift of your continued ministry among us.

The Clergy, Staff, and your Faithful

Since Father Ray is recovering from a major transplant, he may still have a suppressed immune system. Please refrain from handshakes or physical contact during the greeting line for the time being.
