THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Cycle A

Exodus 34:4b-6,8-9

Daniel 3:52, 53, 54, 55

2 Corinthians 13:11-13

John 3:16-18

This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next, however, are designated as solemnities—special days that call our attention to central mysteries of our faith. Today on Trinity Sunday we celebrate the mystery of the Holy Trinity, one God in three persons.

Today's Gospel is from the beginning of John's Gospel. The passage we read follows Jesus' conversation with a Pharisee, Nicodemus, about what it means to be born of both water and the spirit. Nicodemus approaches Jesus at night and acknowledges Jesus as a teacher from God. Jesus tells him that only those who are born from above will see the Kingdom of God. Nicodemus misunderstands and questions how a person can be born more than once. Jesus tells Nicodemus that no one can enter the Kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. Jesus is essentially explaining Baptism, which we celebrate as a sacrament today. Yet Nicodemus, we are told, still does not understand what Jesus is saying. Jesus continues by testifying to the need to be born from above so that one might have eternal life.

After the dialogue with Nicodemus, the author of the Gospel offers his own explanation of Jesus' words. This is what we read in today's Gospel, John 3:16-18.

In the context of today's focus on the mystery of the Holy Trinity, the reading calls our attention to the action of God, who reveals himself in three persons: God the Father, Jesus the Son, and the Holy Spirit. God the Father, out of love for the world, sent his Son into the world to save it. Through the death and resurrection of the Son, we have been given the gift of the Holy Spirit. As three persons, God acts always as a God of love; he does not condemn the world but acts to save it.

The Gospel also calls attention to the response that is required of us. God's love for us calls us to respond in faith by professing our belief in God's son, Jesus, and the salvation that he has won for us. This profession of faith is a sign of the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

FOLLOWING THE 10:30 MASS
SUGGESTED DONATION: $10

RSVP and donate

Augustinian Tom Whelan will speak at St. Agnes' ISLC Sunday, May 31st, after the 10:30 Mass. His topic is Augustinian Spirituality, which has become an item of interest since the election of Augustinian Cardinal Robert Prevost to be Pope Leo XIV, a man deeply steeped in Augustinian spirituality, and a friend of Tom.

Tom Whelan is a native of San Diego County, California. He entered the Order of Hermits of St. Augustine after attending an Augustinian high school. (The name of the community was changed to the Order of St. Augustine some years after Tom's priestly ordination.) Tom has taught in high schools for many years, developed St. Rita's Retreat in Southern Oregon, was the formation director for young Augustinians, and served as vocation director for the California province of the Order. He was in the bass section of St. Agnes' choir for 15 years and is presently stationed at the Augustinian community in Murree, Pakistan.
