THE ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Cycle A

Exodus 19:2-6a | Psalm 100:1-2,3,5 | Romans 5:6-11 | Matthew 9:36-10:8

Today's Scriptures reveal the depth of God's tenderness and love.

In the first reading, the Lord tells Moses that the Israelites are his cherished people, his special possession among all nations. In the Gospel, Jesus looks upon the crowd with compassion, seeing them as sheep without a shepherd.

At times, we too can feel lost and in need of direction. Yet just as he called the twelve disciples and sent them out to shepherd his people, the Lord continues to call each of us to follow him. As we listen to God's holy Word, let us respond with praise and thanksgiving to the Lord, who continually invites us to belong to the flock of Jesus.

Cassago Brianza is also where St. Augustine sought to live a retired life. Continue to Padua for dinner and overnight.

Victory or Death brings to life in a powerful cinematic experience the inspiring true story of the Vendée uprising – ordinary men, women, and children who heroically rose to defend their faith, lands, and freedom during one of history’s darkest chapters in the French Revolution. Led by a reluctant-turned-heroic general, retired naval officer Charette de La Contrie, the story underscores the importance of preserving values worth fighting for, and poignantly portrays the courage and sacrifice required to protect them. “Sacrifice for a cause, greatness of spirit, loyalty, courage, honor...It nourishes the soul... You realize you have seen something special,” one viewer described. Victory or Death is based on the acclaimed French film, Vaincre ou Mourir, released in France in 2023. The film was enthusiastically embraced by audiences in France, performing strongly with the general public and becoming a word-of-mouth success.

The just-released English version of Victory or Death that premiered May 17th in the US is now available on DVD and BluRay with streaming coming soon.

A LETTER FROM FR. IFEANYICHUKWU UWABUNKEONYE

Dear St. Augustine Parishioners,

A blessed Corpus Christi. You may have probably heard about my current immigration status as a Religious worker. I am very pleased to share the good news that the Archdiocese of San Francisco has graciously offered to file the extension of my Religious Visa. With this positive development, kindly disregard any information regarding assisting me in any way. May I thank you greatly for your immense generosity, prayers and kindness.

In the meantime, let us continue to support the Archdiocese and our dear Parish with our faith and generous hearts and with the grace and help of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
