Luke 14:1, 7-14

Meals played an important role in the society in which Jesus lived. More than a time for sharing nourishment, they were a time to share ideas and to model different aspects of social relationships. In Luke's Gospel, the places that a person ate (at the home of a tax collector, 5:29), the people with whom a person ate (sinners, 5:30), whether a person washed before eating (11:38), and, as is the case here, the place that a person sits while eating are all important. The narrator says Jesus tells a parable, but it is really wise advice to both guests and hosts about finding true happiness at the heavenly banquet.

Jesus warns guests to wait before taking their places at the table lest they be asked to move if someone more important arrives. This is more than just a lesson about dinner etiquette. It is advice on how to find your true place in the Kingdom of God. Jesus advises hosts not to invite people who would be expected to repay them to dinner but to invite those who could not repay: the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. This where real blessings can be found.

In these sayings, Luke gives us not only on how to approach the end times but also on how to live according to Jesus' vision of a good society. Luke's Gospel also advises us how the Church must be part of bringing about this society. It is yet another example in Luke's Gospel of the reversal of the kingdom brought about.

THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL, ST. AUGUSTINE CONFERENCE CORNER

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today, we hear Jesus say to us, "...when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

With love for your neighbors who are poor, crippled, lame or blind, look around your house to see what furniture, household items, and clothing you no longer use... and give it to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Have ears to hear the "cries of the poor"

Have eyes to "seek and find the forgotten, the suffering or the deprived"

Have hearts that "bring God's love to the poor" through their generosity and donations.

Would you like to help people? Join St. Vincent de Paul Society, Saint Augustine Conference.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On behalf of our parish staff and the entire St. Augustine Church community, I extend our heartfelt gratitude to every one of you who joined us in celebrating the Feast of our beloved patron, St. Augustine and the 55th founding anniversary of the parish.

Your presence, prayers, joyful spirit, and generous support made this celebration truly special and spiritually enriching. Whether you participated in the liturgical celebrations, helped in the preparations, offered your time and talents, or simply came to be part of our parish family — your contribution brought life and love to our community.

As St. Augustine once said, "You have made us for Yourself, O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in You." May this celebration deepen our faith, renew our sense of community, and draw us closer to God and one another.

Thank you once again for making this fiesta a beautiful expression of faith and unity. May St. Augustine intercede for us always, and may God bless you and your families abundantly.

Father Ray Reyes
