FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Cycle A

Isaiah 7:10-14
Psalm 24:1-6
Romans 1:1-7
Matthew 1:18-24

On this the Fourth Sunday of Advent, our Gospel Reading permits us to begin our contemplation of the mystery of the Incarnation we celebrate at Christmas: “Now this is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about” (Matthew 1:18).

The Gospel of Matthew tells the story of the birth of Jesus from Joseph's perspective. Today's Gospel passage is the second movement in this story. In the preceding verses of the first chapter of Matthew's Gospel, the Evangelist has listed the genealogy of Jesus, tracing his lineage through King David to Abraham. In the chapter to follow, Matthew tells of the visit from the Magi, the Holy Family's flight into Egypt, and Herod's massacre of the infants in Bethlehem. (The other stories which we associate with Christmas, the Annunciation, the Visitation, the angel and the shepherds, are found in the Gospel of Luke). We must not gloss over too quickly the difficult circumstances described in today's Gospel. The way that Joseph and Mary face these circumstances tells us much about these holy people and their faith in God. Joseph and Mary are betrothed to be married. This is sometimes described as an engagement period, but it is more than that. Betrothal in first century Jewish culture was in fact the first part of the marriage contract. A breach of this contract was considered adultery. Mary is found to be with child. If adultery is proven, the punishment might be death. Joseph has rights under Mosaic law, but chooses to act discreetly in his plans to break the marriage contract, so as to protect Mary. Then God intervenes.

The message of the angel of the Lord given to Joseph in his dream tells us much about the child that Mary bears and his role in God's plan. He is conceived by the Holy Spirit. His name will be Jesus, which in the Hebrew means “Yahweh saves.” He will be the fulfillment of the prophecy heard in today's first reading from Isaiah: “. . . The virgin shall be with child . . . and shall name him Emmanuel [God with us].”

Joseph does as the angel of the Lord directs. He takes Mary to be his wife and accepts the child in her womb as his own. Joseph and Mary are both cooperative with God's plan. They are both models for us of what it means to be faithful servants of God.

Merry Christmas

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

"The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light." (Isaiah 9:2)

As we gather in our beautiful Bay Area parishes this Christmas 2025, these ancient words of the prophet Isaiah resonate with a fresh and urgent clarity. We stand at a unique moment in history, not only celebrating the Nativity of our Lord but also standing at the threshold of the Jubilee Year 2025, which Pope Francis has themed "Pilgrims of Hope."

Living in the Bay Area, we are blessed with a tapestry of cultures, innovation, and natural beauty. Yet, we are not immune to the shadows of our time, the anxieties of a fast-paced world, the loneliness that can hide behind digital screens, and the global unrest that weighs heavily on our hearts. Into this reality, the Christ Child is born. He does not arrive in a palace of power, but in the humility of a manger, reminding us that God meets us exactly where we are: in our vulnerability, our struggles, and our hopes.

This Christmas, I invite you to see our community through the lens of the Jubilee. To be a "Pilgrim of Hope" means to recognize that our journey is not solitary. Whether you are a lifelong parishioner, a newcomer seeking a spiritual home, or someone returning to the pews after a long absence, you are a vital part of this family. Our parishes must be "oases of mercy" where the light of Christ is not just a candle we light, but a fire we carry into our neighborhoods.

As we celebrate, let us also be mindful of those for whom the season is difficult. In the spirit of the Jubilee, I ask you to extend the "radical hospitality" of the Gospel. Let us reach out to the marginalized, the homeless on our streets, and the elderly who may be spending this day alone. When we open our hearts to the "least of these," we truly open the doors of our hearts to Christ.

I want to express my deepest gratitude for your faith and your presence. I see the face of Christ in your service to our food pantries, your dedication to our youth, and the way you support one another in times of grief and joy. You are the living stones of this Church.

May the Prince of Peace dwell in your homes this Christmas. May the Blessed Virgin Mary, who carried Hope into the world, guide us as we continue to embark on this Jubilee Year together.

Wishing you and your loved ones a blessed, holy, and Joyful Christmas!

In Christ's Love,

Father Ray
