Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Cycle C

Isaiah 66:10-14c

Psalm 66:1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16, 20

Galatians 6:14-18

Luke 10:1-12, 17-20 or 10:1-9

Today's Gospel begins immediately after the final verse in last Sunday's Gospel. After a strong language about the difficulties of discipleship, Jesus immediately appoints 72 people to go ahead of him to every town and place he plans to visit, proclaiming that the kingdom of God is at hand. He sends them in pairs. In the Law of Moses two witnesses were needed for a testimony to be credible. It was also a safer way to travel.

Jesus admits it will be difficult that he is sending them out like lambs among wolves. Yet they are to bring nothing with them, not even a money bag or sandals. They are to greet no one on the way so as not to be distracted from their mission. When they enter a house, their message is simply "peace." The response they will receive may be positive or negative. Either way, they are to know that the kingdom of God is at hand. They are not to demand special treatment but eat and drink whatever is given them. They are to stay in the house and are not to look around for one that provides better accommodations. They are to heal the sick as a sign that the kingdom of God is at hand for them. Like Jesus' miracles, healing is a sign of the coming of the kingdom. If the town will not receive them, they are to shake the dust from their feet and move on. Even in the case of such rejection they should know that the kingdom of God is at hand.

A key theme of today's Gospel and last Sunday's Gospel is discipleship—its challenges, its difficulties, and its rewards. Sharing in the mission of Jesus is difficult, but everyone is called to do it, not just some professionals trained for ministry. Even for us today, the harvest is plentiful. We should pray to the master to send out workers for his harvest.

“WHERE THERE IS DESPAIR ...

HOPE”

— The Peace Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi

Over the years, you've heard Catholic Charities San Francisco works tirelessly to support our neighbors in San Francisco, Marin and San Mateo counties, and that we ...

- Keep families housed and off the streets
- Help seniors age with dignity and companionship
- Provide kids with opportunities to learn, grow, and thrive
- And guide immigrants on the path to citizenship

Perhaps you, or someone close to you, has even been helped through a difficult time by one of our 30+ programs.

Did you know that

Catholic Charities CYO Nutrition programs teach Bay Area kids how to eat healthy, grow their own food, and learn to cook.

Eating fresh and healthy is a life-skill that all kids should learn—of course, the very best produce is grown close to home. Catholic Charities CYO Nutrition programs allow students in low-income urban schools and afterschool programs to grow their own produce using state of the art hydroponic gardens systems. These machines, installed in schools, take up only 9 square feet and produce up to 28 pounds of leafy greens in a 30-day harvest period. The produce is then used for educating students on healthy eating habits, cooking demonstrations by our in-house chef, and lots of opportunities to gather and eat together. Extra produce is bagged and given

THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL, ST. AUGUSTINE CONFERENCE CORNER

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the Gospel today we see how Jesus sent his Apostles out two by two. In this spirit, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul members “go out two by two” to visit those who are poor and needy in their homes. It is there, in the family setting, that Vincentians listen, offer humble advice, and render assistance.

Know that the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul bring your gift directly to the poor and suffering in our parish.

Have ears to hear the “cries of the poor”

Have eyes to “seek and find the forgotten, the suffering or the deprived”

Have hearts that “bring God’s love to the poor” through their generosity and donations.

Would you like to help people?

Join St. Vincent de Paul Society, Saint Augustine Conference.
