THE SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Cycle A

“ASK SOMETHING OF ME AND I WILL GIVE IT TO YOU.”

MATTHEW 13:44-52

“The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls. When he found one of great value, he went away and sold everything he had and bought it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind. When it was full, the fishermen drew it ashore, sat down, and put the good into buckets but threw out the bad. So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field.

The kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls. When he found one of great value, he went away and sold everything he had and bought it.

The kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind. When it was full, the fishermen drew it ashore, sat down, and put the good into buckets but threw out the bad.

So it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

The first reading tells us that this is what God said to Solomon in a dream. Solomon asks not for long life or riches. He asks for an understanding heart. If God appeared to you and said the same thing, what would your response be? There is a certain wisdom in placing the first reading side by side with today's Gospel. Once again, we hear parables about the kingdom of heaven. Jesus used images of great wealth—buried treasure, a Pearl of great price, and a large catch of fish—to describe the kingdom. For the believer, the kingdom of heaven is the greatest treasure, for to inherit this treasure is to attain eternal life with God. Again, back to the question posed above. What would your response be if God appeared like a genie and gave you one wish? God does appear today, through the living word, and asks us to continue to formulate a response to the question. The formulation of this response is part of what it means to travel the journey of faith. What is the treasure you seek this day? What is your response to God's question?

The International Organization for the Family proudly presents

Victory or Death

Fight for Family. Fight for Faith. Fight for Freedom.

Victory or Death brings to life in a powerful cinematic experience the inspiring true story of the Vendée uprising – ordinary men, women, and children who heroically rose to defend their faith, lands, and freedom during one of history's darkest chapters in the French Revolution. Led by a reluctant-turned-heroic general, retired naval officer Charette de La Contrie, the story underscores the importance of preserving values worth fighting for, and poignantly portrays the courage and sacrifice required to protect them. "Sacrifice for a cause, greatness of spirit, loyalty, courage, honor...It nourishes the soul... You realize you have seen something special," one viewer described. Victory or Death is based on the acclaimed French film, Vaincre ou Mourir, released in France in 2023. The film was enthusiastically embraced by audiences in France, performing strongly with the general public and becoming a word-of-mouth success.

The just-released English version of Victory or Death that premiered May 17th in the US is now available on DVD and BluRay with streaming coming soon.

Options to promote the movie through opportunities to PAY IT FORWARD or HOST A SCREENING are available on the movie's website:
