PARISH BULLETIN

July 27, 2025

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Cycle C

Genesis 18:20-32

Psalms 138:1-2, 2-3, 6-7, 7-8

Colossians 2:12-14

Luke 11:1-13

Luke gives more attention to Jesus' teachings on prayer than any other Gospel writer. He also mentions Jesus at prayer more than the others. In today's reading, from the beginning of Chapter 11 of his Gospel. Luke presents the core of Jesus' teaching on prayer. It consists of Jesus teaching a prayer to his disciples, a parable on the persistent neighbor, and assurances that God hears our prayers.

Luke's version of the Lord's Prayer is probably the closest to the original form that Jesus taught. We pray that God's name will be recognized as holy and that his rule over all will be established. This is followed by petitions for our needs for bread, for forgiveness, and for deliverance. Luke uses the more theological language of "sins" rather than "debts." Jesus goes on to reassure them that God answers prayers. First he tells a parable about a persistent neighbor who asks a friend for bread at midnight. The friend is already in bed and has no desire to disturb his family by opening the door. But because the neighbor is persistent, the sleeping man gets up and gives him all that he needs. If a neighbor is willing to help us if we are persistent enough, how could God not respond to our requests?

This teaching concludes with the reminder that if we seek, we will get a response. If a human father with all his faults, knows how to give good gifts to his children, how much more will our heavenly Father give us? The gift of the Holy Spirit is central to Luke's theology and plays an important role in the growth of the Church. Jesus teaches in his model prayer our recognition of God's holiness and his rule over all things.

Congratulations, Father Maurice Tokay!

SAMARITAN HOUSE

I am writing from Samaritan House of San Mateo County with a great volunteer opportunity for parishioners to assist in the early evening with dinner service at Safe Harbor Shelter, located in South SF. This is a great way to get involved with volunteering on an ad-hoc basis and signing up is very easy. Do you think this can be shared somehow with the church community? Let us know if a link like this is sufficient or if a flyer of some kind might work better and we can look into having one made for the purpose of recruitment.

This is the link where people that want to help can simply sign up ad-hoc to serve dinner on nights of their choosing at the shelter (age 18+ only): <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C054DA4A722A0F4C61-57208723-samaritan#/>.

We are really trying to get the word out about this opportunity, so any other ideas on who we can reach or avenues for advertising are appreciated ☺
