Creating Space to Encounter Jesus Christ

Our world is loud and fast-paced. It can be difficult to hear the voice of God if we don't intentionally create space to listen. As we kneel before the elevated host, the world stills. When we receive Holy Communion, we are the closest to Jesus we can possibly be this side of heaven.

Whether we perceive it or not, each and every Mass is a supernatural experience of encounter with God.

The second invitation of the Year of Parish Revival is to create more opportunities for everyone to personally encounter Jesus in a deeper way in the Mass, confession, adoration, Eucharistic pilgrimages, and other forms of worship. Watch your parish bulletin for Encounter Nights—coming soon—and bring a friend!
