ON REOPENING FOR PUBLIC MASSES

Starting Thursday, June 24, 2021, the dispensation for attending Sunday Mass will be dropped, and the Sunday Mass obligation restored.

If you are sick or compromised, you are dispensed from attending in-person Holy Mass.

Congregants are to wear masks during Mass indoors, distancing is reduced to three feet and current distribution of communion protocol is to continue.

For details, go to the parish website.

PARISH LIFE

All people desire to enjoy communion with God, and this desire gives rise to the search for religious truth and finds expression in the formation of religious culture. Even people who claim no religious affiliation cannot help but need ritual, belonging, and truth. Why? Because we all long to know and love the One in whose image we are made. "For God formed man to be imperishable; the image of his own nature he made him."

RELIGIOUS
WEEK

Hope speaks of us of a thirst, an aspiration, a longing for a life fulfillment, a desire to achieve great things, things that fill our heart and lift our spirit to lofty realities like truth, goodness and beauty, justice and love... Hope is bold; it can look beyond personal convenience, the petty securities and compensations which limit our horizon, and it can open us up to grand ideals that make life more beautiful and worthwhile (Fratelli tutti, 55).

Join us throughout the week as we pray, reflect, and take action on religious liberty, both here in this country and abroad.

A PRAYER FOR FATHERS

A blessed and Happy Father's Day!

God our Father, We give you thanks and praise for fathers young and old.

We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocation; May they find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.

We pray for our own Fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering; May they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice.

We remember fathers, grandfather, and great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love. Amen.

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY SAINT AUGUSTINE CONFERENCE

"Inspired by gospel values, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, a Catholic lay organization, leads women and men to join together to grow spiritually by offering person-to-person service to those who are in need and suffering in the tradition of its founder, Blessed Frederic Ozanam, and patron St. Vincent de Paul." Call 650-273-7088.

HOSPITALITY MINISTRY

Interested in serving as Hospitality Minister? Get trained and join this energetic group of ministers. Youth and Young Adults welcomed. Contact Rita Liu at

RitaLiu2020@gmail.com

LEGION OF MARY

"The main apostolate of the Legion is activities directed towards Catholics and non-Catholics. This is usually done by encouraging them in prayer, attending Mass and learning more about the Catholic faith."

SMALL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITIES

A Small Christian Community is a group of 3-10 individuals who share their faith in a 90-minute session grounded in Scripture. The group prays, learns, and acts on their faith by involving themselves in the larger community of the parish. Do you wish to participate in a small faith sharing group or form your own group? Contact Malou Salumbides at sccatstaugustine@gmail.com.

CONGRATULATIONS GRADUATES OF SCHOOL YEAR 2020-2021!

As your classes and grading are now complete, may you strive toward excellence in all you do.

As the speeches conclude, may your voices rise up to pronounce justice and peace in the world.

As the fanfares cease, may you sing of joy, even in the dark and lonely places.

As the applause quiets, may you celebrate and lift up those around you.

As you graduate today, may your achievements grow and cause growth in your communities.

And may we all know of the overwhelming blessings of the One who created all things.

— Benediction, The Rev. Jay Moyers

JUNE is the start of wedding season!

The Catholic Church has a long history of helping couples to prepare for marriage. It has learned a great deal that can benefit any couple, regardless of religion. Because the Catholic Church wants couples to form strong, lasting, marriages, couples who wish to marry in the Catholic Church are asked to:

- Contact and meet with your parish priest as soon as you are engaged.
- Take at least six months to intensively prepare for marriage. This goes beyond choosing a date and church, reserving a place for the reception, and picking out dresses. It means using this time to delve more deeply into your relationship and approach this momentous day with prayer and reflection.
- Attend an approved marriage preparation program. There are many different formats for marriage preparation programs ranging from intensive weekends, to a weekly series, to "in home" mentor couple programs. Check out the most common national programs here. To find what programs are available near you, contact your diocesan family life office. Catholic marriage preparation programs are usually presented by a team of lay married couples and a priest or deacon. They are not restricted to Catholics, but they are always in keeping with Catholic teaching.
- Most dioceses ask couples to take a marriage [reparatory inventory (such as FOCCUS, PMI, or PREPARE). These are not "tests" to determine whether you can get married in the Church, but rather discussion starters to assess what issues you already agree on and what you might need to discuss further. Marriage is a vocation of holiness. Whether you are just starting out in marriage or have fifty years under your belt, the advice, real life stories, and Church teaching can help strengthen and bless your marriage.
