The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Cycle C

Genesis 14:18-20

Psalm 110:1, 2, 3, 4

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Luke 9:11b-17

Today, the second Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate a second solemnity, which marks our return to Ordinary Time. Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. At one time, this day was called Corpus Christi, Latin for “the Body of Christ.” In the most recent revision of the liturgy, the name of this day is expanded to be a more complete reflection of our Eucharistic theology.

The feeding of the 5,000 is the only one of Jesus’ miracles to appear in all four Gospels. Luke places it between Herod’s question, “Who is this about whom I hear such things?” and Peter’s response to Jesus’ question about who he thought Jesus was: “You are the Messiah of God.” In Luke the feeding is not the result of Jesus’ compassion for the crowd but is instigated by the disciples. They wanted Jesus to send the crowd away to town. Instead Jesus tells the disciples to give them some food on their own.

The passage is meant to remind us of two feedings in the Old Testament: the feeding of the Israelites in the desert and Elisha’s feeding of 100 people with 20 loaves in 2 Kings 4:42-44. It is also connected to the institution of the Eucharist. As in the Last Supper accounts in Matthew, Mark, and Luke and in Paul’s account in 1 Corinthians 11:23-24, Jesus takes bread, looks up to heaven, blessed the bread, breaks it, and then gives it to the disciples. In using this exact language, Luke is reminding his readers that in this miracle Jesus is doing more than feeding the hungry people as God did for the Israelites and the prophet Elisha did as well. The bread he gives is his body, which he will continue to give as often as the community breaks bread in remembrance of him in the Eucharist.

Over the years, you've heard Catholic Charities San Francisco works tirelessly to support our neighbors in San Francisco, Marin and San Mateo counties, and that we ...

- Keep families housed and off the streets
- Help seniors age with dignity and companionship
- Provide kids with opportunities to learn, grow, and thrive
- And guide immigrants on the path to citizenship

Perhaps you, or someone close to you, has even been helped through a difficult time by one of our 30+ programs.

Did you know that

Catholic Charities CYO Nutrition programs teach Bay Area kids how to eat healthy, grow their own food, and learn to cook.

Eating fresh and healthy is a life-skill that all kids should learn—of course, the very best produce is grown close to home. Catholic Charities CYO Nutrition programs allow students in low-income urban schools and afterschool programs to grow their own produce using state of the art hydroponic gardens systems. These machines, installed in schools, take up only 9 square feet and produce up to 28 pounds of leafy greens in a 30-day harvest period. The produce is then used for educating students on healthy eating habits, cooking demonstrations by our in-house chef, and lots of opportunities to gather and eat together. Extra produce is bagged and given to families to ensure that no food goes to waste.

Archbishop Cordileone and Catholic Charities invite pastors and parish staff this Matthew 25, a celebration luncheon of the parishes across the Archdiocese of San Francisco. Pastors are encouraged to nominate a parishioner to receive a Matthew 25 award. Submit nominees by June 27 at auctria.events/CCSFMatthew25 or email Mary Jansen. The event is free to attend, but registration is required. The Matthew 25 Award honors parishioners whose selfless volunteerism, compassion, and dedication to those in need reflect the loving example of Christ. Come celebrate the spirit of service that strengthens our Archdiocese and inspires us all.

THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL, ST. AUGUSTINE CONFERENCE CORNER

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Today we celebrate the gift of the Body and Blood of Christ. We hear Jesus ask his disciples, "Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?" And he shows them how by the multiplication of the five loaves and two fishes.

Today, as you donate to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul know that the multiplication of the loaves and fishes will happen again and the hungry will be fed.

Have ears to hear the "cries of the poor"

Have eyes to "seek and find the forgotten, the suffering or the deprived"

Have hearts that "bring God's love to the poor" through their generosity and donations.

Would you like to help people?

THE JUBILEE PRAYER

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel. May those seeds transform us within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven,

May the same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed, be the glory and praise for ever. Amen.

-Pope Francis-
