Colossians 1:12-20

Luke 23:35-43

Today as a Church, we conclude our liturgical year and celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. The Gospel we proclaim shows the great mystery of our faith: In the moment of his crucifixion, Jesus is shown to be King and Savior of all.

Luke's Gospel has been loaded with surprises: the poor are rich, sinners find salvation, the Kingdom of God is found in our midst. Here we see the greatest surprise of all. We are confronted with the crucified Jesus, whom faith tells us is King and Savior of all. The irony is that the inscription placed on the cross, perhaps in mockery, contains the profoundest of truth. As the leaders jeer, the thief crucified by his side recognizes Jesus as Messiah and King, and finds salvation.

Jesus is King, but not the kind of king we might have imagined or expected. His kingship was hidden from many of his contemporaries, but those who had the eyes of faith were able to see. As modern disciples of Jesus, we, too, struggle at times to recognize Jesus as King. Today's Gospel invites us to make our own judgment. With eyes of faith, we, too, recognize that Jesus, the crucified One, is indeed King and Savior of all.

Pastor's Message to the Parishioners

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we gather with family and friends this Thanksgiving, my heart is filled with gratitude for each of you—the faithful parishioners who make our parish a living witness to God's love. Your prayers, your service, and your generosity are the blessings that sustain our community.

Thanksgiving is more than a holiday; it is a spiritual practice deeply rooted in our Catholic faith. The very word Eucharist means "thanksgiving." Each time we celebrate Mass, we give thanks to God for the gift of His Son, for the grace that sustains us, and for the hope of eternal life.

This season invites us to pause and reflect on the countless blessings we often overlook: the gift of faith that anchors us in Christ, the love of family and friends who walk with us, the beauty of creation that reminds us of God's providence, and the strength we find in our parish community, united in prayer and service.

As St. Paul reminds us, "Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you" (1 Thessalonians 5:18). Even in times of trial, gratitude opens our hearts to God's presence and renews our trust in His plan.

May your Thanksgiving table be filled not only with food but with joy, laughter, and the peace of Christ. Know that I will be offering Mass in thanksgiving for all of you, asking the Lord to bless your homes with His abundant grace.

Happy Thanksgiving!

With gratitude and prayers,

Father Ray

THANKSGIVING DAY PRAYER

Lord, we thank you
for the goodness of our people
and for the spirit of justice
that fills this nation.

We thank you for the beauty and fullness of the land and the challenge of the cities.

We thank you for our work and our rest,
for one another, and for our homes.

We thank you, Lord:
accept our thanksgiving on this day.

We pray and give thanks through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
