Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 13, 2025

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test Jesus and said, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" He said in reply, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live." But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied, "A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and cared for him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.' Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Our Role as the Church in Times of Uncertainty

As members of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, we are called to support and uplift those facing deportation fears or other immigration-related challenges. Guided by our mission, we provide clarity, reassurance, and resources that reflect our commitment to faith, human dignity, and solidarity.

*~Office of Life, Justice, & Peace
LA Archdiocese of Los Angeles*

Considering what is happening around our communities, Archbishop Gomez has asked that assistance be given to our immigrant sisters and brothers who have been affected by recent deportation activities in the archdiocese. To this end, a Family Assistance Program has been created to aid and support individuals and families.

We encourage our parishioners to make financial donations

Contributions may be made directly to St. Ambrose or through the secure donation portal at lacatholics.org/immigrant-support or by sending checks to Sister Ann Carla Costello, SND, Archdiocese of Los Angeles, 3424 Wilshire Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90010.

Please indicate "Family Assistance" on the memo line of the check.

DID YOU KNOW?

What makes a child feel safe enough to disclose abuse?

There are several factors that contribute to whether a child is comfortable disclosing abuse to an adult. Children are more likely to talk about problems when they: have access to an adult they can trust; are able to understand that what is happening to them is not normal or safe; and trust that they will be believed. Another factor that may help a child disclose abuse is when a safe adult is intentional and asks direct questions about a child's life as it communicates caring and attention to the child's life circumstances.
