World Day of Grandparents & the Elderly July 27

Archbishop José H. Gomez launched the new Family Assistance Program today to aid parishes throughout the Archdiocese of Los Angeles as they continue to work to provide needed services and direct support, such as groceries, meals and prescription deliveries, to help those who have been impacted by the recent immigration enforcement policies. Every dollar contributed goes directly to helping those in crisis — administered through Archdiocesan parishes and outreach ministries, many of whom are already walking with families in need.

"This is a challenging moment for our community," Archbishop Gomez said. "Many of our friends and family, our neighbors and fellow parishioners, are afraid and anxious. These are good, hard-working men and women, people of faith, people who have been in this country for a long time and are making important contributions to our economy. Now they are afraid to go to work or be seen in public for fear that they will get arrested and be deported. This new Archdiocesan fund is designed to help our brothers and sisters in this difficult moment."

DID YOU KNOW? Authority figures and boundary responsibilities

When an adult uses their authority to control or manipulate a situation, this puts children and vulnerable adults at risk for abuse. Manipulation can often occur through grooming behaviors, which can lead to boundary violations and ultimately abuse. It is always the responsibility of the adult to maintain appropriate, healthy boundaries with children in their care. For guidelines on how to interact with minors at our parishes, schools and ministries please visit <https://lacatholics.org/policies-and-procedures/>, and for more tips read the VIRTUS® article "Ministerial Boundaries, Power, and Authority" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know/.
