“This is my beloved Son,
with whom I am well pleased;
listen to him.”

– Matthew 17:5

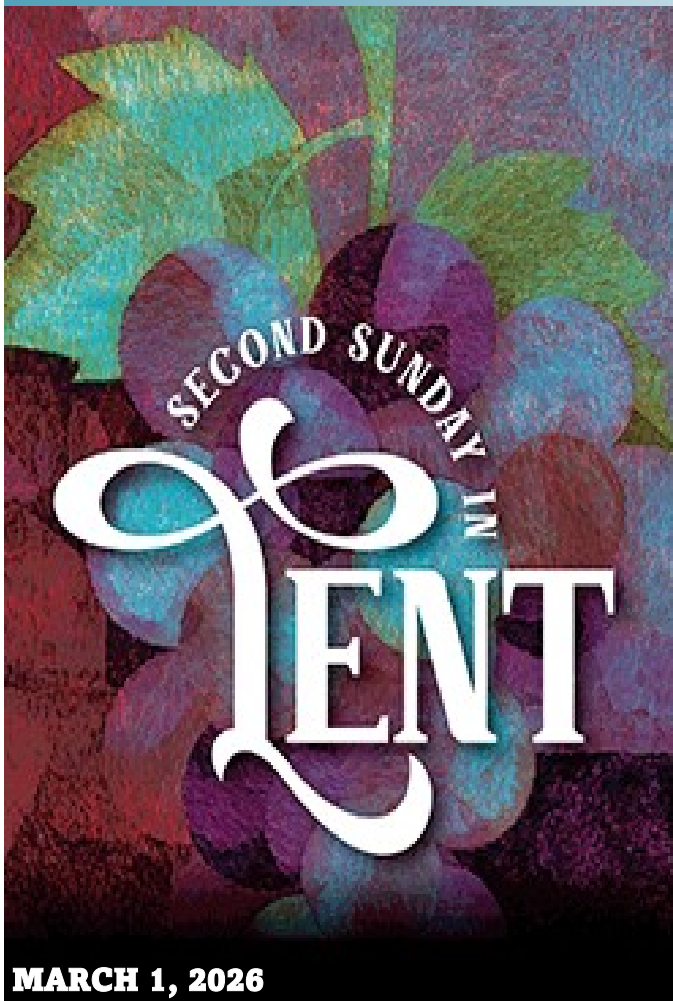

When the disciples drop their nets to follow Jesus to accompany him in his ministry, they first call him “teacher” and “rabbi.” Gradually, their perception of him begins to change, and they see him as others see him—as a prophet. Then this understanding deepens further; they recognize Jesus as the Messiah the world has been waiting for. All along, Christ has been revealing his divinity to his disciples, teaching them that their discipleship comes with a cost, and preparing them for his coming suffering and death.

For Peter, James, and John, the Transfiguration is “proof positive” that Jesus is the fulfillment of what the prophets have been promising. If Jesus’ face shining like the sun and his clothes becoming white as light is not telling enough, the voice of the Father clearly states, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.” Talk about a teachable moment!

Light dispels darkness. The hope of the resurrection is stronger than the pain of the Passion. Initiatives like the Together in Mission Annual Appeal make tangible God’s light and love and give hope to those in our community who need it the most. Please prayerfully consider if this is one way you can share the promise of the resurrection by making a gift today.

Station of the Cross 2026

Join us every Friday during Lent after the 6:00 p.m. mass though March 27

Lent is a sacred time of fasting, prayer, and almsgiving — a season to grow closer to Jesus, especially in the Blessed Sacrament. As Catholics, we believe that Jesus is truly present in the Consecrated Host received in Holy Communion, reserved in the Tabernacle, and exposed in the Monstrance during Adoration.

You are warmly invited to join us for Eucharistic Adoration every Tuesday following the 6:00 p.m. Mas.

Come spend time with Our Lord and experience the peace that only He can give.

DID YOU KNOW? What to do when a child discloses abuse Receiving a disclosure of abuse is a huge responsibility — and one that must be handled properly to ensure the child's safety. First and foremost, it is important to remain calm, and to let the child know that you are listening and taking them seriously. Assure them that you believe their words, and that you want to help. As soon as possible, although not while the child is talking to you, take notes and record details, and then report what was disclosed to you to the proper authorities. For more tips, visit lacatholics.org/reporting-child-abuse and read the VIRTUS® article "When a Child Discloses" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.
