SCRIPTURE INSIGHTS

The Church worships one God that believers encounter in three ways. God the Father is complete mystery, as this Sunday's responsorial psalm declares. Throughout the psalm, the prophet declares that God is greater than human artifacts, natural phenomena, or a cosmic power. God created these things and is praiseworthy and exalted above all of them.

God's presence comes into the world as Jesus Christ. In one important way Jesus is distinct from the God of Israel: the Son is really human. In other important ways the Son is identical to the God that Israel knows. His is similarly mysterious, confounding his opponents and sometimes even perplexing even his disciples. Also like the God of Israel, Jesus is merciful and faithful, joining humanity to share the love God has for us.

Within the mysterious God of Israel lay the seeds to understand the incarnate Son. Those who encountered the Son found in his loving presence the clues that they needed to understand the Spirit. Those who live in the Spirit discover the infinite depths of the mysterious Father. At the heart of reality and of our faith is a community of love.

Today's Solemnity

Although God is one, God is not solitary. Each of the Divine Persons—Father, Son and Holy Spirit—is distinct from the others and exists eternally with them as a communion of persons in love. Baptized in the name of our Triune God, we are called to share in the divine life and to shape our families and our communities to reflect the unity and love found in the relationship among the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

DID YOU KNOW?

Respecting boundaries A child's need to establish a boundary must always be the priority, even over an adult's desire for affection or connection. If a child does not want to give a hug or even a high five, it is up to the adult to accept that boundary and respect the child's comfort level. This is an easy way to help a child determine what feels safe and what does not and can help protect him from potential abuse.

MAGNIFICA HUMANITAS
Pope Leo XIV's First Encyclical

Pope Leo XIV's first encyclical, "Magnifica Humanitas," will be published May 25, addressing artificial intelligence and the protection of human dignity, the Vatican has announced. The encyclical, the title of which is Latin for "Magnificent Humanity," was signed by the pope on May 15, the 135th anniversary of "Rerum Novarum," Pope Leo XIII's foundational 1891 social encyclical on labor and capital written during the first Industrial Revolution. In an unprecedented first, Pope Leo XIV will be present in person at the Vatican press conference to mark the publication of the social encyclical, along with a tech founder from one of the world's fastest growing AI companies.

Please join us after the 10:00 AM Mass for coffee and donuts, hosted by our Hospitality Ministry. All are welcome—come share in fellowship and community as we gather together.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is held in the Church every Tuesdays after the 6:00 p.m.

Thank you, Kathy Nguyen, for your faithful service as our Hospitality Minister. Your ministry has been a blessing to our parish. As you journey to a new phase in your life, may God continue to guide and protect you. Please know you remain in our hearts and prayers. You will be missed. "The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make His face shine upon you." — Numbers 6:24–25
