Mother's Day Blessing

Blessed is the Mother, who lets the Lord be her guiding hand.
Whose faith brings her family courage, Whose wisdom comes from God, and whose children still stand and honor her.

Habemus Papam!

Pope Leo XIV

"Peace be with you," were Pope Leo's first words to the crowd. He is the 267th successor of Peter and first North American Pope.

A native of Chicago and Augustinian missionary who worked for years in Peru, the new

Pope Leo XIV had been working at the Vatican as prefect of the Dicastery for Bishops under the late Pope Francis. ~Cindy Wooden/USCCB

Lord, source of eternal life and truth,
give to your shepherd a spirit of courage and right judgment, a spirit of knowledge and love. By governing with fidelity those entrusted to his care,
may he, as successor to the Apostle Peter and vicar of Christ, build your Church into a sacrament of unity, love,
and peace for all the world.
Amen.

Let us pray for the pope.

May the Lord preserve him, give him a long life, make him blessed upon the earth, and not hand him over to the power of his enemies.

*May your hand be upon your holy servant.
And upon your son, whom you have anointed.*

Join us for coffee, donuts
and fellowship on the patio
after the Sunday 10am mass.

Thank you for joining us today!

DID YOU KNOW? What to do if a child discloses abuse

If a child tells you about sexual abuse, the first and most important step to take is to listen to him or her. Let the child fully express the situation and how he or she is feeling. It's important to be aware that children may not always disclose abuse in clear terms. Let the child know that you are listening, and that you believe him or her. Remind him or her of how brave it is to disclose this, and that you will help. Report any suspicion of abuse to authorities. For more tips, visit <https://lacatholics.org/reporting-child-abuse/> and read the VIRTUS® article "When a Child Discloses" at https://www.virtusonline.org/virtus/free_article.cfm?free_articles_id=1673.
