

2024 Danny Barrera Memorial Scholarship

St. Ignatius Knights of Columbus Council 10861, chartered in 1992, has continually supported this parish and its multiple programs through fundraising events. Our Council created this Scholarship in 1999 to recognize the outstanding academics, leadership, community service and liturgical participation by Catholic students.

After the untimely passing Sir Knight Danny Barrera - who at the time was a high school senior – in 2007, Council 10861 voted to rename the scholarship in his honor.

While this scholarship will not pay for a student’s entire tuition, it is meant as a sign of appreciation from the St. Ignatius Knights of Columbus for the student’s service to the community, the liturgy, and the Catholic Church.

This scholarship award is funded solely by the Knights of Columbus Council 10861, exclusively for the use and benefit of members of our Parish Community, and is not funded or supported by any other local, state or national Councils of Knights of Columbus or any other groups.
