PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As we journey through the autumn season, our hearts and minds naturally turn to the image of harvest. The fields around us yield their fruit, and we give thanks for the blessings of God's creation. Yet in our liturgical life, this same imagery carries a deeper spiritual meaning. In these final weeks of the Church's year, our readings begin to focus on the end times—the great harvest of souls at the Last Judgment. Just as the farmer gathers wheat and separates it from the chaff, so too will the Son of Man gather all nations before Him. In the Gospel of Matthew, chapter 25, Jesus paints for us a vivid and sobering picture of this moment: the separation of the sheep and the goats. The sheep are those who lived their lives in mercy—feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, visiting the imprisoned, and welcoming the stranger. The goats are those who failed to see Christ in the least of their brothers and sisters. The Lord's judgment is not based on appearances, possessions, or status, but on the dignity of our actions and the love we have shown. Each day we are being prepared for that encounter before the Judge of Heaven and Earth. We honor Christ not only in our worship, but in the way we live out our Christian dignity through compassion, service, and faithful discipleship.

This spiritual preparation also finds expression in our celebration of the month of November, dedicated to All Souls. It is a sacred time when the Church turns her prayerful gaze toward all who have died in the hope of resurrection. We do not forget them; we honor them, and we intercede for them before the throne of God. To make this visible in our parish, we will once again erect an Altar of Remembrance in the church. You are warmly invited to bring photographs of your deceased loved ones and place them upon the altar. Please attach a small card to the front of the picture with the person's name and the date of their entrance into eternal life. For example: "Josephine Maduzia, mother of Fr. Norbert. June 21, 2023." This allows all who come before the shrine to pray intentionally for those whose faces and names are placed there. The shrine will be blessed before the Vigil Mass of All Souls on the evening of November 1st. It will remain in place until the conclusion of the liturgical year on the Solemnity of Christ the King. Throughout this time, may it stand as a visible reminder of the great communion of saints—those on earth, those in purgatory, and those already rejoicing in heaven.

Some may ask: why does the Church pray for the dead? The answer is rooted in both Scripture and Tradition. We believe that death does not sever the bonds of charity. As members of Christ's Body, we remain united even when separated by the veil of death. Just as we pray for the living, so too do we commend the departed to God's mercy. The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that those who die in God's friendship, yet still in need of purification, undergo a process of cleansing we call purgatory. Our prayers, sacrifices, and Masses offered on their behalf assist them in this final preparation for heaven. This is not only an act of mercy but an act of faith in Christ's victory over death. When we gather to pray for the dead, we proclaim that love is stronger than the grave and that hope in Christ does not disappoint. For this reason, all the Masses on Sunday, November 2nd, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, will be offered for the dead. Together, we will raise our hearts in intercession, remembering not only our own family members and friends but also all the faithful departed who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith.

Before we come to All Souls, we first celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints on Saturday, November 1st. This feast reminds us of the countless men and women, known and unknown, who now share the glory of heaven. They stand as examples for us and as intercessors who pray for us on our journey. Because the feast falls on a Saturday this year, the obligation to attend Mass has been abrogated. This means that while All Saints remains a solemn feast of the Church, the faithful are not bound under pain of sin to attend Mass this year. Nevertheless, we will offer Holy Mass at 9:00 a.m. next Saturday to honor this important solemnity. Please note that because of this Mass, our usual Saturday morning confessions will be canceled.

As I write to you, I am still in Rome on pilgrimage with the Equestrian Order of the Holy Sepulchre of Jerusalem. Together with Knights and Dames from around the world, we are praying in the holy basilicas, walking through the Jubilee Holy Doors, and offering the Eucharist in thanksgiving for God's mercy. Please keep me in your prayers during this time abroad, and know that I carry each of you with me in my heart and in my prayer. Until I return, may we continue to prepare together for the great harvest of souls, living with dignity as disciples of Christ, remembering our loved ones, and placing our trust in the God of life and mercy.

In Christ, our Hope,

Fr. Norbert

Sunday, Oct 26, 2025Be who you are

“Do you know who I am?” That’s the question maître d’s, hotel clerks, even arresting officers occasionally receive from the celebrated and powerful among us whose sense of privilege and entitlement gets the best of them. Contrast that with the question Jesus asks his disciples about the word on the street, “Who do they say I am?” When they answer, “The Messiah,” Jesus swears them to silence. In the words of the 20th-century monk Thomas Merton: “Pride makes us artificial and humility makes us real.” Strive each day to be who you really are: “The salt of the earth” (Matt. 13-14).

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18; 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18; Luke 18:9-14 (150). “Jesus addressed this parable to those who were convinced of their own righteousness.”

Monday, Oct 27, 2025How to keep it all straight

The synagogue leaders, upon seeing Jesus raise up a woman bent in two by years of infirmity, were indignant that Jesus had done this astonishing, good thing on the Sabbath, a day when it was forbidden to work. It seems that those who choose external compliance over compassion are more bent over—bent in upon themselves—than the woman whom Jesus bids, “Stand up.” Being a stand-up person sometimes means going against convention, expectation, and even laws. Choose a loving response even if it means bending the rules.

Romans 8:12-17; Luke 13:10-17 (479). “Ought she not to have been set free on the sabbath day?”

Tuesday, Oct 28, 2025Fight the good fight

The Zealots, of which the apostle Simon was a member, were the radical and militant resistance to the Roman military occupation of Palestine in the first century. Today we would call them insurgents. Though Jude likely did not belong to the Zealots, the devotion that bears his name today is one of the most zealously fervent in the church. Both Simon and Jude, then, join with us in fighting against the oppression that would take away our hope. To that end we are invited to join our resources with organizations like the National Shrine of St. Jude and the St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital to help carry on the fight.

FEAST OF SIMON AND JUDE, APOSTLES

Ephesians 2:19-22; Luke 6:12-16 (666). “He called his disciples to himself, and from them he chose.”

Wednesday, Oct 29, 2025Narrow your focus

Jesus speaks of entering salvation through the “narrow door.” Other translations refer to it as the “narrow gate.” Walled portions of Jerusalem contained some gates that were so narrow it was said a person would have trouble passing through them carrying much with them. Perhaps this image can help us consider why the path to salvation involves a narrow passage—

we can’t carry anything with us to the other side; it’s only us, shorn of our props and possessions, and God. “We must detach ourselves from all,” says Saint John of God, “for the all who is Jesus Christ, and we must trust him alone.” It might be a good idea to begin detaching from those possessions now.

Romans 8:26-30; Luke 13:22-30 (481). “Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter.”

Thursday, Oct 30, 2025Everything leads back to the divine

For those times when God seems distant or absent, when people move through their day and don’t see signs of God anywhere, it’s easy to forget that God is behind it all. Yet even a world that feels more haunted rather than filled with God’s presence is still beloved creation—the expression of God’s overflowing love. A number of spiritual masters have suggested the practice of seeing God in all things. After all, if God really did create everything, it must be possible to find a string in every moment that leads back to the divine. Saint Paul, for one, was sure nothing in the universe could separate people from God. And why not? It all comes from the one who made it.

Romans 8:31b-39; Luke 13:31-35 (482). “What will separate us from the love of Christ?”

Friday, Oct 31, 2025Keep the conversation going

Despite his differences with the Pharisees, Jesus never stopped interacting with them, even going so far as to dine with them. And if they were not particularly open to his message, they at least were impressed enough to share a meal with him and hear him out. In an age where public differences of opinion, played out in front of the ever-present media, seem to descend to the level of insult and demonization, consider breaking bread with someone with whom you disagree. Though you will not settle all your differences, you may strengthen the things you have in common and allow for the lines of communication to remain open.

Romans 9:1-5; Luke 14:1-6 (483). “On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees.”

Saturday, Nov 01, 2025Shiny, happy people

Saints come from everywhere—small towns and big cities, local neighborhoods and faraway lands. They are men and women, old and young, laborers and professionals, humble folk and royalty. They wear medical uniforms, bishop miters, religious habits, worker shirts, farmer overalls, and beggar rags. They are the blessed of the gospel beatitudes, a word from the old Latin that means “happy.” One of them could be reading this page right now. It all depends on how blessedly happy you choose to be.

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14; 1 John 3:1-3; Matthew 5:1-12a (667). “Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.”

Opportunities to Serve Others

Oportunidades Para Servir a los Demás

DIGNITY OF LIFE

Dignity of Life Ministry at St. Ignatius seeks to call attention to specific topics against the dignity of the human person and provide parishioners and other community members with avenues to promote respect for human life through prayer, education, direct service and advocacy.

Email: Life@silcc.org

HOPE CENTER HOUSTON

Through collaboration with Hope Center Houston day shelter, this ministry coordinates volunteers from the parish to provide hot meals to our homeless brothers and sisters in our local area. We also coordinate drives and other events in support of the Hope Center.

Email Address: Homeless@silcc.org

FAMILY CONNECTIONS

A ministry of caring people offering friendship, help, encouragement, and hope to homebound parishioners. Along with rides to Mass, the goal of this ministry is to lighten the burden of the caregiver by providing temporary relief and assist the homebound to live in their home as long as possible.

Email: FamilyConnections@silcc.org

SANDWICH MAKERS

We provide lunches to the hungry at Casa Juan Diego and those that come in for Financial Aid. For many of the recipients, it is their only meal for the day. Sandwich makers make sandwiches in their homes on Sunday, Tuesday, or Thursday. Drivers then deliver them to Casa Juan Diego on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. The commitments by Sandwich Makers or Drivers are approximately once a month.

Email Address: Sandwich@silcc.org

GABRIEL PROJECT

A program sponsored by the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston, and active in parishes as a ministry offering hope and aid to any woman facing a crisis pregnancy. When a woman comes to a Gabriel Parish, she will be provided with any help she may need to care for her unborn child.

COLUMNA DEL PASTOR

Queridos hermanos,

Al recorrer esta temporada de otoño, nuestros corazones y mentes se dirigen naturalmente a la imagen de la cosecha. Los campos que nos rodean dan fruto y damos gracias por las bendiciones de la creación de Dios. Sin embargo, en nuestra vida litúrgica, esta misma imagen conlleva un significado espiritual más profundo. En estas últimas semanas del año litúrgico, nuestras lecturas comienzan a centrarse en el fin de los tiempos: la gran cosecha de almas en el Juicio Final. Así como el agricultor recoge el trigo y lo separa de la paja, también el Hijo del Hombre reunirá a todas las naciones ante sí. En el Evangelio de Mateo, capítulo 25, Jesús nos pinta un cuadro vívido y convincente de este momento: la separación de las ovejas y las cabras. Las ovejas son aquellas que vivieron con misericordia: alimentando al hambriento, vistiendo al desnudo, visitando al encarcelado y acogiendo al forastero. Las cabras son aquellas que no supieron ver a Cristo en el más pequeño de sus hermanos y hermanas. El juicio del Señor no se basa en apariencias, posesiones ni estatus, sino en la dignidad de nuestras acciones y el amor que hemos demostrado. Cada día nos preparamos para ese encuentro ante el Juez del Cielo y de la Tierra. Honramos a Cristo no solo en nuestra adoración, sino también en la forma en que vivimos nuestra dignidad cristiana mediante la compasión, el servicio y un fiel discipulado.

Esta preparación espiritual también se expresa en nuestra celebración del mes de noviembre, dedicado a los Fieles Difuntos. Es un tiempo sagrado en el que la Iglesia dirige su mirada de oración hacia todos los que han fallecido con la esperanza de la resurrección. No los olvidamos; los honramos e intercedemos por ellos ante el trono de Dios. Para que esto sea visible en nuestra parroquia, erigimos de nuevo un Altar del Recuerdo en la iglesia. Les invitamos cordialmente a traer fotografías de sus seres queridos fallecidos y colocarlas sobre el altar. Por favor, adjunten una pequeña tarjeta al frente de la foto con el nombre de la persona y la fecha de su entrada a la vida eterna. Por ejemplo: "Josephine Maduzia, madre del Padre Norbert. 21 de junio de 2023". Esto permite que todos los que se acerquen al santuario oren intencionalmente por aquellos cuyos rostros y nombres están allí. El santuario será bendecido antes de la Misa de Vigilia de los Fieles Difuntos, la tarde del 1 de noviembre. Permanecerá en su lugar hasta la conclusión del año litúrgico en la Solemnidad de Cristo Rey. Durante todo este tiempo, que sea un recordatorio visible de la gran comunión de los santos: los que están en la tierra, los que están en el purgatorio y los que ya se regocijan en el cielo.

Algunos se preguntarán: ¿por qué la Iglesia reza por los difuntos? La respuesta se encuentra tanto en la Escritura como en la Tradición. Creemos que la muerte no rompe los lazos de la caridad. Como miembros del Cuerpo de Cristo, permanecemos unidos incluso cuando nos separa el velo de la muerte. Así como rezamos por los vivos, también encomendamos a los difuntos a la misericordia de Dios. El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica enseña que quienes mueren en la amistad de Dios, pero aún necesitan purificación, pasan por un proceso de purificación que llamamos purgatorio. Nuestras oraciones, sacrificios y misas ofrecidas en su nombre les ayudan en esta preparación final para el cielo. Esto no es solo un acto de misericordia, sino un acto de fe en la victoria de Cristo sobre la muerte. Cuando nos reunimos para orar por los difuntos, proclamamos que el amor es más fuerte que la tumba y que la esperanza en Cristo no defrauda. Por esta razón, todas las misas del domingo 2 de noviembre, Conmemoración de Todos los Fieles Difuntos, se ofrecerán por los difuntos. Juntos elevaremos nuestros corazones en intercesión, recordando no sólo a nuestros familiares y amigos sino también a todos los fieles difuntos que nos han precedido marcados con el signo de la fe.

Antes de llegar a la festividad del Día de los Fieles Difuntos, celebramos la Solemnidad de Todos los Santos el sábado 1 de noviembre. Esta festividad nos recuerda a los innumerables hombres y mujeres, conocidos y desconocidos, que ahora comparten la gloria del cielo. Son ejemplos para nosotros e intercesores que rezan por nosotros en nuestro camino. Dado que la festividad cae en sábado este año, se ha abrogado la obligación de asistir a misa. Esto significa que, si bien Todos los Santos sigue siendo una fiesta solemne de la Iglesia, los fieles no están obligados bajo pena de pecado a asistir a misa este año. Sin embargo, ofreceremos la Santa Misa a las 9:00 a. m. el próximo sábado para honrar esta importante solemnidad. Tengan en cuenta que, debido a esta misa, se cancelarán nuestras confesiones matutinas habituales del sábado.

Mientras les escribo, sigo en Roma, peregrinando con la Orden Ecuestre del Santo Sepulcro de Jerusalén. Junto con Caballeros y Damas de todo el mundo, rezamos en las santas basílicas, atravesamos las Puertas Santas del Jubileo y ofrecemos la Eucaristía en agradecimiento por la misericordia de Dios. Les pido que me tengan presente en sus oraciones durante este tiempo en el extranjero, y sepan que los llevo a cada uno en mi corazón y en mis oraciones. Hasta mi regreso, que sigamos preparándonos juntos para la gran cosecha de almas, viviendo con dignidad como discípulos de Cristo, recordando a nuestros seres queridos y poniendo nuestra confianza en el Dios de la vida y la misericordia.

En Cristo, nuestra esperanza,

Domingo, Oct 26, 2025Se quien eres

“¿Sabes quién soy?” Esa es la pregunta que los maitres de restaurante, empleados de hotel, y hasta los oficiales que arrestan a alguien reciben ocasionalmente de las celebridades y de los poderosos de nuestro medio, cuyo sentido de privilegio y autoridad los supera. Compara eso con la pregunta que Jesús hace a sus discípulos acerca de lo que se dice en la calle, “¿Quién dicen que soy yo?” Cuando responden, “el Mesías,” Jesús les hace jurar que guardarán silencio. En palabras del monje del siglo XX, Thomas Merton: “El orgullo nos hace artificiales y la humildad nos hace reales.” Esfuércense cada día para ser quienes realmente son: “La sal de la tierra” (Mateo 13-14).
