PASTOR'S COLUMN

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

With a heart full of gratitude, I write to share with you the tremendous success of our 2025 Fall Festival — our single largest parish fundraiser and one of the most meaningful expressions of who we are as a Catholic community. More than an event filled with food, fun, and fellowship, the Fall Festival is a tangible sign of the generosity, stewardship, and unity that define St. Ignatius of Loyola Parish. Once again, you have demonstrated that when we come together, led by the Holy Spirit, God accomplishes great things among us. This year's Festival generated net proceeds of $370,956, surpassing last year's results and exceeding our budgeted expectations. Although slightly over a month has passed since the festival, these results should still be understood as preliminary, and a complete accounting is provided elsewhere in this bulletin for your review and transparency. The numbers tell an inspiring story: sponsorships and donations alone exceeded $160,000 — an extraordinary accomplishment reflecting the strong support of local businesses, parish families, and benefactors who believe in the mission of our parish. In addition, food sales, games, auctions, craft booths, and entertainment each contributed meaningfully to the final total. And what a joy it was to see our Americana theme celebrated so enthusiastically! With icons like George Washington, Lady Liberty, Betsy Ross, and a parade of flags that led the auction and ignited friendly bidding energy, the décor and spirit of our festival grounds reminded us of the blessing of heritage, freedom, and unity that we enjoy in this great nation. This remarkable achievement — in spirit and in stewardship — is not simply an increased bottom line; it is a testimony to the vitality and hope present within our church family.

I want to express my deepest gratitude to all who contributed to this success. To our sponsors — thank you for investing in the mission and ministries of our parish. Your gifts extend well beyond a weekend of festivities; they support our evangelizing efforts and provide the means by which we form disciples for Jesus Christ. To the Festival Committee and its coordinators — your months of preparation, organization, and tireless commitment ensured that every detail was handled with excellence. Your leadership is a blessing to our parish. To the countless volunteers — those who planned, set up, cooked, sold tickets, ran booths, and stayed late each evening cleaning — please know that your good and faithful service was noticed, appreciated, and celebrated. You selflessly gave of your time and energy, and I am profoundly thankful. Finally, to every parishioner, family, and guest who attended, purchased raffle tickets, bid in the auctions, or simply enjoyed the day together — thank you for being present and for bringing your joyful spirit to this important event. You have once again shown what it means to be “a people for others,” united in purpose and love.

The funds raised through our Festival directly support the ongoing ministries and mission of our parish. They strengthen our formation programs for children, youth, and adults — enabling us to continue building a faith that is lived intentionally at every stage of life. They sustain our care of the parish campus, which must always be maintained and improved as a welcoming home for worship and community. They allow us to reach outward in service, caring for the poor and those who come to us in need. In every way, what we raise together serves the Gospel. It's not about dollars — it's about discipleship.

I would also like to offer a heartfelt word of thanks for your generosity in last weekend's pledge drive in support of the Little School in Chiché, Guatemala — a mission that has been part of the heart and identity of St. Ignatius of Loyola for more than two decades. Through your pledges and financial sacrifices, we ensure that the children of Chiché have access not only to education, but to hope, dignity, and a future rooted in faith. Our mission of being a people for others shines brilliantly in this ongoing partnership. Your support proclaims that our Catholic faith extends far beyond the walls of our parish. Thank you once again for responding with love.

As pastor, I am continually humbled and inspired by the generosity and spirit of this community. St. Ignatius of Loyola calls us to seek “the greater glory of God” in all things — and I believe that is exactly what you have done through your participation in the Fall Festival and through your continued support of the Little School in Guatemala. In your stewardship of time, talent, and treasure, you are helping build a parish that witnesses to Jesus Christ in word and deed. You are forming a community centered not in what we receive, but in what we joyfully share. May the Lord who multiplies every good work bless each of you abundantly. May our patron, St. Ignatius of Loyola, intercede for us and keep us rooted in our mission to love, to serve, and to be a parish always ready to say yes to the needs of others.

With prayerful gratitude,

Here's some good news

If you pay attention to the news, it wouldn't be too much to think the world is going to you-know-where in a handbasket. Violence, crime, corruption, illness, poverty, ignorance, and plain old self-centeredness seem to rule the day. In Jesus' time some said those kinds of things were signs of the end of the world. Christ himself knew the list: "powerful earthquakes, famines, and plagues from place to place." But he also urged caution: "When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified . . . it will not immediately be the end." In other words, whatever is going on in the world, we are not to be afraid. We can trust in God and do what we can for the cause of goodness.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Malachi 3:19-20a; 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12; Luke 21:5-19 (159).

"For you who fear my name, there will arise the sun of justice with its healing rays."

The royal treatment at its best

Not too many princesses looked beyond the walls of their palaces to notice the poor—the people who more than likely made up most of their realm. But Elizabeth of Hungary did. Married in 1221 to Louis of Thuringia, a pious husband, she lived simply and devoted herself to works of mercy even though she was the wife of a ruler. After the death of her husband in battle, she left court, arranged for the care of her three children, and associated herself with the Franciscans. She established a hospital and cared for the sick until her early death at the age of 24. The symbols of her sainthood include bread and a pitcher. May Elizabeth inspire us to provide a royal welcome to those in need with abundant charity.

MEMORIAL OF ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY, RELIGIOUS

1 Maccabees 1:10-15, 41-43, 54-57, 62-63; Luke 18:35-43 (497).

"A blind man was sitting by the roadside begging . . . He shouted, 'Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me!'"

No need to go out on a limb

Zacchaeus the tax collector is the only person in the gospels who has their height mentioned. But in the end, it is not for his smallness that Zacchaeus is remembered but the bigness, the boldness, and the determination of his desire to see Jesus and turn his life around. Doubtless Mr. Z.'s antics in climbing a tree got Jesus' attention, but what was really impressive was that desire for faith, so stunning that Jesus invites himself to the tax collector's house for dinner, bringing salvation along with him rather than a bottle of wine for the host. To get closer to Jesus we don't need to climb a tree but open the door from within to find Jesus eager to enter.

2 Maccabees 6:18-31; Luke 19:1-10 (498). "Today salvation has come to this house."

Frailty, thy name is not woman

Womanly is a word that too often has been used by our culture to suggest weakness or inadequacy. Worse, these negative connotations can sometimes lead to derision and oppression. Phrases such as "throws like a girl," though harmless-sounding, reflect this negativity. Yet when we look at the women around us, in the Bible, and in our Catholic tradition, we find women who exhibit a womanliness that is synonymous with courage, strength, boldness, and savvy. They have led countries, built schools and hospitals, led people to God, and sacrificed their lives for what they believed in. Indeed, Venerable

Bishop Fulton Sheen said, "The history of civilization could actually be written in terms of the level of its women." Time to survey our own language to make sure it accurately reflects the nature and gifts of women.

2 Maccabees 7:1, 20-31; Luke 19:11-28 (499). "Most admirable and worthy of everlasting remembrance was the mother."

Make a fast retreat

Gone on a retreat lately? Most areas have places to make retreats, often run by religious orders or dioceses. Retreats come in all shapes and sizes: individual or group, programmed or unstructured, a day or a week. You can use them to get back in touch with what's most important spiritually or just to get some rest. Going on a retreat, though, doesn't have to mean blocking out time, making a reservation, and hitting the road. One retreat you can always make is in the silence of your heart. "For God alone my soul waits in silence, for my hope is from him," says Psalm 62:5. Wherever you are, you can take a few minutes each day to stop what you're doing, clear your mind, and place yourself in the silence of God.

1 Maccabees 2:15-29; Luke 19:41-44 (500). "Many who sought to live according to righteousness and religious custom went out into the desert to settle there."

Shout out to Mary

While not recorded in the Bible, this day celebrates God's choice of Mary to play a role in salvation history and her presentation at the Temple as a child to be offered to God. Francis of Assisi celebrated Mary with his "Salutation of the Virgin," which includes these lovely acclamations of Mary: "Hail, O Lady, Holy Queen, God's Holy Mother Mary! You have been made the Virgin Church and chosen by the most Holy Father in heaven./ You has he consecrated with His most holy beloved Son and the Holy Spirit the Paraclete./ In You there has been, and is, all fullness of Grace, and all that is good." Honor Mary today by striving to live in the joy and fullness of God's good graces.

MEMORIAL OF THE PRESENTATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

1 Maccabees 4:36-37, 52-59; Luke 19:45-48 (501). "There was great joy among the people."

Angels in our midst

Legend has it that Saint Cecilia (d. 117) wanted to dedicate her life to Christ as a virgin, but her parents married her to a Roman nobleman. She eventually converted her husband, Valerian, and his brother to Christianity by her belief in angels. "There is an angel who watches over me," she is said to have told her husband. When he asked to see the angel, Cecilia replied that he must be baptized first. Once baptized, Valerian witnessed an angel holding crowns of roses and lilies while Cecilia prayed. When Valerian's brother inquired about the flowers, he, too, desired to be baptized, and the brothers and Cecilia ministered to martyred Christians until their own martyrdom. Do you believe in angels? If so, you're not alone. According to a Baylor University study, 55 percent of respondents answered yes to the statement: "I was protected from harm by a guardian angel."

MEMORIAL OF CECILIA, MARTYR

1 Maccabees 6:1-13; Luke 20:27-40 (502). "They can no longer die, for they are like angels."

In Memoriam

During the month of November, Holy Mother Church invites us to pray especially for the souls of the faithful departed. We remember our loved ones who have gone before us, entrusting them to the infinite mercy of God. Through our prayers, sacrifices, and the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, we assist them on their journey to eternal rest. May the perpetual light of Christ shine upon them, and may they rest in peace.

HOPE CENTER HOUSTON

Serving the homeless community in Northwest Houston.

ONE MEAL PER MONTH IS ALL WE NEED FROM YOU!

The Hope Center serves the homeless community in many ways, but recently lost their donor for daily meals.

The call now is for families, ministries, friend groups, neighbors or individuals who can help by donating one lunch meal per month for 60 guests.

You may purchase the hot meal from a restaurant, or prepare it at our St. Ignatius commercial kitchen. You will deliver to 821 Peakwood Dr, Houston, TX 77090

To schedule your delivery and for more details, please contact us immediately by emailing:

COLUMNA DEL PASTOR

Queridos hermanos,

Con el corazón lleno de gratitud, les escribo para compartirles el tremendo éxito de nuestro Festival de Otoño 2025, nuestra mayor actividad de recaudación de fondos parroquial y una de las expresiones más significativas de nuestra identidad como comunidad católica. Más que un evento lleno de comida, diversión y compañerismo, el Festival de Otoño es una muestra tangible de la generosidad, el servicio y la unidad que definen a la Parroquia de San Ignacio de Loyola. Una vez más, ustedes han demostrado que cuando nos reunimos, guiados por el Espíritu Santo, Dios obra grandes cosas entre nosotros. El Festival de este año generó ingresos netos de $370,956, superando los resultados del año pasado y nuestras expectativas presupuestarias. Si bien ha transcurrido poco más de un mes desde la fiesta, estos resultados deben considerarse preliminares, y se incluye un informe completo en otra sección de este boletín para su revisión y transparencia. Las cifras cuentan una historia inspiradora: tan solo los patrocinios y las donaciones superaron los $160.000, un logro extraordinario que refleja el firme apoyo de las empresas locales, las familias de la parroquia y los benefactores que creen en la misión de nuestra parroquia. Además, la venta de comida, los juegos, las subastas, los puestos de artesanía y el entretenimiento contribuyeron significativamente al total final. ¡Y qué alegría fue ver nuestro tema estadounidense celebrado con tanto entusiasmo! Con íconos como George Washington, la Estatua de la Libertad, Betsy Ross y un desfile de banderas que encabezó la subasta e inspiró una sana competencia, la decoración y el ambiente de nuestro recinto ferial nos recordaron la bendición de nuestro origen, la libertad y la unidad de las que disfrutamos en esta gran nación. Este notable logro —tanto en espíritu como en administración— no se trata simplemente de un aumento en las ganancias; es un testimonio de la vitalidad y la esperanza presentes en nuestra comunidad parroquial.

Quiero expresar mi más profundo agradecimiento a todos los que contribuyeron a este éxito. A nuestros patrocinadores: gracias por invertir en la misión y los ministerios de nuestra parroquia. Sus donaciones van mucho más allá de un fin de semana de festividades; apoyan nuestros esfuerzos evangelísticos y nos brindan los medios para formar discípulos de Jesucristo. Al Comité del Festival y a sus coordinadores: sus meses de preparación, organización y dedicación incansable aseguraron que cada detalle se manejara con excelencia. Su liderazgo es una bendición para nuestra parroquia. A los innumerables voluntarios: quienes planificaron, montaron, cocinaron, vendieron boletos, atendieron los puestos y se quedaron tarde cada noche limpiando: sepan que su buen y fiel servicio es reconocido, apreciado y celebrado. Ofrecieron desinteresadamente de su tiempo y energía, y les estoy profundamente agradecido. Finalmente, a cada feligrés, familia e invitado que asistió, compró boletos de rifa, participó en las subastas o simplemente disfrutó del día juntos: gracias por estar presentes y por traer su alegría a este importante evento. Una vez más han demostrado lo que significa ser “personas para los demás”, unidos en propósito y amor.

Los fondos recaudados en nuestro Festival apoyan directamente los ministerios y la misión de nuestra parroquia. Fortalecen nuestros programas de formación para niños, jóvenes y adultos, permitiéndonos seguir construyendo una fe vivida con propósito en cada etapa de la vida. Sostienen el cuidado del recinto parroquial, que debe mantenerse y mejorarse constantemente como un hogar acogedor para la oración y la comunidad. Nos permiten servir a los demás, atendiendo a los pobres y a quienes acuden a nosotros necesitados. En definitiva, lo que recaudamos juntos sirve al Evangelio. No se trata de dinero, sino de discipulado.

También quisiera expresar mi más sincero agradecimiento por su generosidad durante la campaña de donaciones del fin de semana pasado en apoyo a “la Escuelita” de Chiché, Guatemala, una misión que forma parte esencial de la identidad de San Ignacio de Loyola desde hace más de dos décadas. Gracias a sus donaciones y contribuciones económicas, garantizamos que los niños de Chiché tengan acceso no solo a la educación, sino también a la esperanza, la dignidad y un futuro basado en la fe. Nuestra misión de servir a los demás se refleja claramente en esta colaboración continua. Su apoyo demuestra que nuestra fe católica trasciende los límites de nuestra parroquia. Gracias nuevamente por su amor.

Como párroco, me siento profundamente conmovido e inspirado por la generosidad y el espíritu de esta comunidad. San Ignacio de Loyola nos llama a buscar la mayor gloria de Dios en todo, y creo que eso es precisamente lo que ustedes han hecho a través de su participación en la Fiesta de Otoño y su continuo apoyo a la Escuela Infantil de Guatemala. Con su generosa administración de tiempo, talento y recursos, están contribuyendo a construir una parroquia que da testimonio de Jesucristo con palabras y acciones. Están formando una comunidad centrada no en lo que recibimos, sino en lo que compartimos con alegría. Que el Señor, que multiplica toda buena obra, los bendiga abundantemente. Que nuestro patrono, San Ignacio de Loyola, interceda por nosotros y nos mantenga firmes en nuestra misión de amar, servir y ser una parroquia siempre dispuesta a responder afirmativamente a las necesidades de los demás.

Con profunda gratitud y oración,

Domingo, Nov 16, 2025Aquí hay algunas buenas noticias

Si pones atención a las noticias, no sería mucho pensar que el mundo se va a pique. La violencia, el crimen, la corrupción, la enfermedad, la pobreza, la ignorancia, y el simple viejo egocentrismo parecen dominar el día. En el tiempo de Jesús algunos dicen que esa clase de cosas eran señales del fin del mundo. Cristo mismo supo la lista: “terremotos fuertes, hambruna, y plagas de lugar a lugar.” Pero él también instó a tener cautela: “Cuando escuches de guerras e insurrecciones, no te aterres . . . no será el final inmediatamente.” En otras palabras, cualquier cosa que suceda en el mundo, no tendremos miedo. Podemos confiar en Dios y hacer lo que podamos por la causa del bien.
