PASTOR'S COLUMN

COLUMNA DEL PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Grace and peace to you as we enter the Second Sunday of Advent, a season of longing, preparation, and joyful expectation. Advent is a time of watching and waiting—of looking honestly at our lives and allowing the Lord to prepare us for His coming at Christmas and at the end of time. Each week of this holy season deepens our reflection, and this second week invites us to focus more intentionally on peace: the peace that Christ alone can give, and the peace we are called to make present in our families, parish, and world. While the first week of Advent confronts us with wakefulness and vigilance, the Church now turns our attention toward the prophetic voice of John the Baptist, who calls out in the wilderness, “Prepare the way of the Lord!” His cry reminds us that genuine preparation requires conversion of heart—turning away from all that keeps us from God and turning toward the One who brings peace. As we hear John’s voice echo in our liturgy this weekend, we are reminded that the peace Christ brings is not passive; it is transformative. It invites us to reconsider our priorities and allow the Lord to heal what is broken within us.

One of the most beloved symbols of this season is the Advent wreath, a sign rich in tradition. Its circular shape, without beginning or end, reflects God’s eternal love for us. The evergreen branches that surround it symbolize hope and life—reminding us that even in the darkest and coldest months, God’s promise remains steady. This weekend we light the second candle, traditionally called the Candle of Peace. Its growing flame reminds us that the light of Christ steadily increases as Christmas draws near. Each candle invites us to deepen our preparation: hope in the first week, peace in the second, joy and love in the weeks to come. For families, lighting the Advent wreath at home is a powerful way to bring the season into daily life—slowing the pace, gathering together, praying briefly, and remembering that we are journeying toward the Nativity of Our Lord. Throughout the world, the faithful prepare for Christmas with customs that reflect the diversity and beauty of the Church. Some set up the Advent calendar, marking each day with a Scripture verse or small act of charity. Others prepare the Jesse Tree, tracing salvation history from Adam to Christ. Many Hispanic families create a nativity scene, or Nacimiento, adding figures as the season progresses. And in some cultures, families keep the tradition of setting out empty mangers, filling them with straw each time a child or adult performs an act of love—preparing a soft place for the Christ Child. These traditions remind us that Advent is not merely a countdown to Christmas; it is a spiritual journey of the heart.

This particular week of Advent is beautifully framed by two important Marian celebrations. On Monday we celebrate the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a holy day of obligation and the patronal feast of the United States. Many mistakenly believe this solemnity celebrates Jesus’ conception; in fact, it commemorates the moment Mary herself was conceived—preserved from original sin by a singular grace of God in view of the mission she would one day accept. Because she was to become the Mother of the Redeemer, God prepared her from the very beginning to be a pure vessel for His Son. Even though this feast falls on a Monday, it remains a holy day of obligation in our country because Mary, under the title of her Immaculate Conception, is the patroness of the United States. I warmly encourage everyone to attend Mass, honor Our Lady, and ask her intercession for peace in our nation and in our hearts. At the end of the week, we celebrate Our Lady of Guadalupe, a feast cherished throughout the Americas. In 1531, Mary appeared to St. Juan Diego on Tepeyac Hill, speaking in his indigenous language and presenting herself as the Mother of the True God. Her message brought hope, unity, and profound conversion to the peoples of the Americas. Her image—miraculously imprinted on Juan Diego’s tilma—continues to inspire millions. Here at St. Ignatius, the celebrations begin at 5:30 a.m. with a candlelit procession, matachines dancers, and the traditional mañanitas, songs of love and reverence to Our Lady. It is a beautiful celebration of faith, culture, and the tender love of our Mother who draws us ever closer to her Son.

Next weekend, our youth preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation will attend their retreat. A retreat provides sacred time and space—away from noise, screens, and daily distractions—to encounter the Holy Spirit more deeply. It allows our young people to reflect, pray, listen, and open their hearts to the gifts God desires to give them: wisdom, understanding, right judgment, courage, knowledge, reverence, and wonder and awe in God’s presence. Please keep them, and their leaders, in your prayers that they may return renewed, strengthened, and ready to complete their initiation into the life of the Church.

As this holy season unfolds, let us commit ourselves to keeping Advent truly Advent. With prayers for peace to your homes and hearts,

Fr. Norbert

Put aside your to-do list

Advent can seem like a wintery Lent—purple decor, sober worship, scripture about the end times. While it is about focusing on our inner life, it's not from the perspective of repentance but a passionate desire for God. Unfortunately, a quiet time like Advent is easily shouted down by the madness of a jump-started Christmas. Advent is not a to-do list; it's a gift tied in purple velvet ribbon. Unwrap it—it's "just what you always wanted!" Confront your use and abuse of time. Create and jealously guard little pockets of quiet. Go for a walk in the crisp air. Sit with your address book; picture, pray for, and bless each person you cherish. Turn off the TV, listen to the first part of Handel's Messiah and bask in its beauty. Be still. Know God.

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Isaiah 11:1-10; Romans 15:4-9; Matthew 3:1-12 (4). "The earth shall be filled with knowledge of the LORD."

Have a grace-full day

What is grace? One way to think of it is anything that comes from God. We can think of it in terms of what we give to God: prayer and worship, service to others, doing God's will. Or what God sends to us: the gift of creation, love, inspiration, consolation, help, and much more. Mary had grace in abundance—both what she gave and received. Make today a day of prayer to her to intercede for us and inspire us to give and receive God's grace. Here is a simple prayer from Saint Teresa of Calcutta to get you started: "Mary, give me your Heart: so beautiful, so pure, so immaculate; your Heart so full of love and humility that I may be able to receive Jesus in the Bread of Life and love Him as you love Him and serve Him in the distressing guise of the poor."

SOLEMNITY OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Patron of new beginnings

When Juan Diego (1474-1548) was canonized in 2002, he became the first indigenous saint from the Americas. The farmer and mat weaver was in his 40s when Hernán Cortés led the conquest of Spain in 1521, and within three years the first wave of Franciscan monks arrived near Juan's village. Juan and his wife were among the first of the indigenous residents to accept Baptism. Despite their age, the couple opened their hearts to a new beginning and readily uprooted themselves to move closer to the missionaries in Mexico City. Pray to Juan Diego, patron of immigrants and indigenous people, to inspire each of us to redouble our efforts to stand with those seeking a better life in a new land.

A song to lift your heart

Asked what liturgical song most fostered and nourished their spiritual life, the majority of respondents in any given online poll will cite "On Eagle's Wings" by Father Michael Joncas. The song, inspired by Isaiah's prophecy and Psalm 91, contains the beautifully crafted refrain: "And He will raise you up on eagle's wings, Bear you on the breath of dawn, Make you to shine like the sun, And hold you in the palm of His Hand." Remember those words of solace whenever your burden feels too great.

ADVENT WEEKDAY

Isaiah 40:25-31; Matthew 11:28-30 (183). "They that hope in the LORD will . . . soar as with eagles' wings."

Found in translation

The pontificate of Damasus (366-384) occurred during a tumultuous period in the Early Church, with schisms and heresies on all sides. Perhaps Damasus' greatest contribution was his insight that a standardized version of the Bible was desperately needed. In 382 he commissioned a highly respected scholar named Jerome to revise the Bible into a more accurate and updated Latin version, working directly from the original Greek (New Testament) and Hebrew (Old Testament) versions. Saint Jerome's monumental effort came to be known as the Vulgate, meaning "translated into a native language." Even though Latin long ago stopped being a language of everyday use, the Vulgate still holds an honored position in the church. Take time for a little scripture reading today.

MEMORIAL OF DAMASUS I, POPE

Isaiah 41:13-20; Matthew 11:11-15 (184). "I, the LORD, will answer them; . . . That all may see and know."

A labor of love

Artist J. Michael Walker produced his Virgin of Guadalupe series of paintings and sketches from 1995-2020. One of the most memorable portraits in the series is Ironing, Thinking, where we see Mary with a slightly careworn expression on her face as she irons her famous cloak of stars while balancing her crown on her head with simple dignity. In trying to capture the spirit of Mexico on canvas, Walker said, "It is only natural that I should have fallen under the spell—along with millions of other devotees—of the Virgin of Guadalupe, whom I portray as a real Mexican woman of Indian descent, going about the myriad tasks by which women hold the world together." Let the Virgin of Guadalupe inspire us to support the dignity of all who labor.

FEAST OF OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE

Zechariah 2:14-17 or Revelation 11:19a; 12:1-6a, 10ab; Luke 1:26-38 (690A). "A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars."

Adjust your vision of Christmas

One quality that many saints share is the capacity to look beyond the sometimes horrific circumstances of their lives and see the presence of God. They see with their hearts. Saint Lucy is certainly among those saints with this ability. Tradition tells us that she was raped then tortured and murdered for being a Christian, but she remained steadfast in her faith until the end. Her feast day comes at a good time. Now, midway through Advent, we might be feeling the pressure to conjure up the "perfect Christmas." Today take a moment to pause, adjust your spiritual lenses, and focus on the love that came into the world and continues to sustain us all through the darkest moments into the light.

MEMORIAL OF LUCY, MARTYR

In Their Own Words: The Impact of Our School

"We were in the midst of discerning what path to take for our son's schooling. He wasn't socially ready for a big kindergarten but was too academically inclined to go back to preschool. When I heard St. Ignatius had a small kindergarten class I knew it was the answer to our prayers. The teachers and staff at SILCC Early Childhood Center worked closely with us to make sure Carter had all of the tools he needed to succeed. They were willing to talk with our son's counselor and even employed the advice of the parish counseling office to make sure everyone was on the same page regarding interventions needed to help him be successful. This little boy thrived in such a loving and positive environment. He looked forward to going to school every day and grew in every way: socially, spiritually, and academically. He is now a thriving 1st grader thanks to SILCC ECC who, with some simple TLC, changed the course of his academic life with their acceptance of him. We are forever grateful to this program for giving our son the fresh start that he needed after hard times at other preschools. Thank you for meeting him where he was and allowing him to grow!"

PASTOR'S COLUMN

COLUMNA DEL PASTOR

Queridos hermanos,

Que la Gracia y la paz estén con ustedes al comenzar el Segundo Domingo de Adviento, un tiempo de anhelo, preparación y gozosa expectativa. El Adviento es un tiempo de velar y esperar, de examinar honestamente nuestras vidas y permitir que el Señor nos prepare para su venida en Navidad y al final de los tiempos. Cada semana de este tiempo sagrado profundiza nuestra reflexión, y esta segunda semana nos invita a centrarnos más intencionalmente en la paz: la paz que solo Cristo puede dar, y la paz que estamos llamados a hacer presente en nuestras familias, parroquia y mundo. Mientras la primera semana de Adviento nos confronta con la vigilancia y la vigilia, la Iglesia ahora dirige nuestra atención a la voz profética de Juan el Bautista, quien clama en el desierto: "¡Preparad el camino del Señor!". Su grito nos recuerda que una verdadera preparación requiere una conversión del corazón: alejarnos de todo lo que nos separa de Dios y volvernos hacia Aquel que trae la paz. Al escuchar el eco de la voz de Juan en nuestra liturgia este fin de semana, recordamos que la paz que Cristo trae no es pasiva; es transformadora. Nos invita a reconsiderar nuestras prioridades y permitir que el Señor sane lo que está roto dentro de nosotros.

Uno de los símbolos más queridos de esta temporada es la corona de Adviento, un signo con una rica tradición. Su forma circular, sin principio ni fin, refleja el amor eterno de Dios por nosotros. Las ramas perennes que la rodean simbolizan la esperanza y la vida, recordándonos que incluso en los meses más oscuros y fríos, la promesa de Dios permanece firme. Este fin de semana encendemos la segunda vela, tradicionalmente llamada la Vela de la Paz. Su llama creciente nos recuerda que la luz de Cristo crece constantemente a medida que se acerca la Navidad. Cada vela nos invita a profundizar en nuestra preparación: esperanza en la primera semana, paz en la segunda, alegría y amor en las semanas venideras. Para las familias, encender la corona de Adviento en casa es una forma poderosa de integrar la temporada en la vida diaria: bajar el ritmo, reunirse, orar brevemente y recordar que caminamos hacia la Natividad de Nuestro Señor. En todo el mundo, los fieles se preparan para la Navidad con costumbres que reflejan la diversidad y la belleza de la Iglesia. Algunos preparan el calendario de Adviento, marcando cada día con un versículo bíblico o una pequeña obra de caridad. Otros preparan el Árbol de Jesé, recorriendo la historia de la salvación desde Adán hasta Cristo. Muchas familias hispanas crean un nacimiento, añadiendo figuras a medida que avanza la temporada. Y en algunas culturas, las familias mantienen la tradición de colocar pesebres vacíos, llenándolos de paja cada vez que un niño o un adulto realiza un acto de amor, preparando un lugar suave para el Niño Jesús. Estas tradiciones nos recuerdan que el Adviento no es simplemente una cuenta regresiva para la Navidad; es un viaje espiritual del corazón.

Esta semana de Adviento está bellamente enmarcada por dos importantes celebraciones marianas. El lunes celebramos la Inmaculada Concepción de la Santísima Virgen María, día de precepto y fiesta patronal de Estados Unidos. Muchos creen erróneamente que esta solemnidad celebra la concepción de Jesús; de hecho, conmemora el momento en que María fue concebida, preservada del pecado original por una gracia singular de Dios en vista de la misión que un día aceptaría. Para ser la Madre del Redentor, Dios la preparó desde el principio para ser un instrumento puro para su Hijo. Aunque esta fiesta cae en lunes, sigue siendo un día de precepto en nuestro país porque María, bajo la advocación de su Inmaculada Concepción, es la patrona de Estados Unidos. Animo a todos a asistir a misa, honrar a Nuestra Señora y pedir su intercesión por la paz en nuestra nación y en nuestros corazones. Al final de la semana, celebramos a Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, una festividad muy querida en todo el continente americano. En 1531, María se apareció a San Juan Diego en el cerro del Tepeyac, hablándole en su lengua indígena y presentándose como la Madre del Dios Verdadero. Su mensaje trajo esperanza, unidad y una profunda conversión a los pueblos de América. Su imagen, impresa milagrosamente en la tilma de Juan Diego, sigue inspirando a millones. Aquí en San Ignacio, las celebraciones comienzan a las 5:30 a. m. con una procesión a la luz de las velas, matachines y las tradicionales mañanitas, cantos de amor y reverencia a Nuestra Señora. Es una hermosa celebración de la fe, la cultura y el tierno amor de nuestra Madre que nos acerca cada vez más a su Hijo.

El próximo fin de semana, nuestros jóvenes que se preparan para el Sacramento de la Confirmación asistirán a su retiro. Un retiro ofrece tiempo y espacio sagrados, lejos del ruido, las pantallas y las distracciones diarias, para un encuentro más profundo con el Espíritu Santo. Permite a nuestros jóvenes reflexionar, orar, escuchar y abrir sus corazones a los dones que Dios desea darles: sabiduría, inteligencia, consejo, fortaleza, ciencia, piedad y temor de Dios. Por favor, manténganlos presentes en sus oraciones, y a sus líderes, para que regresen renovados, fortalecidos y listos para completar su iniciación en la vida de la Iglesia.

Al emprender este tiempo sagrado, comprometámonos a que el Adviento sea verdaderamente Adviento. Con mis oraciones por la paz en sus hogares y corazones,

Fr. Mark

Domingo, Dec 07, 2025Deja de lado tu lista de tareas pendientes

El Adviento puede parecer una Cuaresma de invierno—la decoración púrpura, la adoración formal, la escritura sobre los tiempos del fin. Aunque se trata de enfocarnos en nuestra vida interior, no lo es desde la perspectiva del arrepentimiento sino un deseo apasionado por Dios. Desafortunadamente, una temporada tranquila como el Adviento es fácilmente llamada a gritos por la locura del arranque de la Navidad. El Adviento no es una lista de cosas que hacer; es un regalo atado en listón de terciopelo púrpura. Desátalo—es “¡justo lo que siempre quisiste!” Enfrenta tu uso y abuso del tiempo. Crea y celosamente vigila pequeñas bolsas de calma. Ve por una caminata al aire fresco. Siéntate con tu agenda; imagina, reza y, bendice a cada persona que quieras. Apaga la TV, escucha la primera parte del Mesías de Handel y disfruta de su belleza. Quédate quieto. Conoce a Dios.

SEGUNDO DOMINGO DE ADVIENTO

*Isaías 11:1-10; Romanos 15:4-9; Mateo 3:1-12 (4).
“Así está lleno el país de la ciencia del Señor.”*
