IRA Charitable Distributions

1. Gifts from an IRA, Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCD), are popular forms of end-of-year giving for those 70 1/2 or older. A donor can make a gift directly from their IRA to the parish which can result in a reduction in annual taxes owed. Gifts to the parish alone can be mailed directly to the parish.
2. Gifts of appreciated stock allow donors to make an impact to the mission of the church and avoid capital gains on the appreciated shares that are donated to a qualified charity. A donor must complete a stock letter of intent.
3. Make giving easy by publishing a link to your online giving site via a QR code in your bulletin.

The Development Department at the Downtown Chancery is available to assist your parish and community with these transactions. The Letter of Intent forms, which are necessary to initiate a donation of stock or gift from an IRA, and to allow proper donor identification and gift designation, are available for download from the Archdiocesan-website:

www.archgh.org/ways-to-give.

For inquiries about gifts of stock or from an IRA to Cindi Garcia in the Finance Office at 713-652-8248.

PASTOR'S COLUMN

COLUMNA DEL PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

"The people who walk in darkness will see a great light; those who live in a dark land, the light will shine on them." With these ancient words from the prophet Isaiah, the Church sets before our eyes the radiant mystery we have celebrated throughout this sacred week: the Light who shines upon us, bringing salvation and peace. That Light is Christ Jesus our Lord. Merry Christmas to you all!

Christmas is not merely a commemoration of something long ago. It is the celebration of an event that continues to shape our identity and our mission. In the humility of Bethlehem, God entered human history and chose to dwell with us, not as a distant deity, but as a child whose light dispels fear and whose presence grants meaning to every human life. Because He has come, we no longer walk in darkness. Because He has entered our world, fear no longer needs to rule our hearts. By virtue of our baptism, we are not only recipients of His light; we become bearers of that light. Each of us shares in the mission of Christ, the Light to the nations. When we were baptized, a candle was placed in our hands with the charge to keep that flame burning brightly. In other words, we are entrusted with the responsibility to be instruments of God's peace in a world that desperately longs for it. The angels' proclamation on Christmas night was not merely poetic sentiment; it was a declaration of our vocation: "Glory to God in the highest. And on earth peace to people of good will." Through our collaboration with God—through the daily choices of kindness, mercy, forgiveness, and integrity—we help to establish a peace beyond all human understanding, a peace that only God can give.

This weekend, during the Christmas Octave, the Church turns our attention to the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph. Their humble home in Nazareth reveals both the beauty and the challenge of family life. It is within the family—the Domestic Church—that the human heart first learns what compassion looks like, what understanding feels like, how forgiveness transforms the wounded spirit, and how peace is cultivated. Families can be places of laughter and joy; they can also experience strain, disagreement, or hurt. Yet God chose to sanctify the human family by entering into one. In doing so, He affirmed that even the imperfect and sometimes fragile bonds of family life can become the very place where grace takes root. Perhaps this is one of the most profound Christmas miracles: that God can use the brokenness of our lives, the fractures in our relationships, and the struggles we carry to manifest His plan for the salvation of the world. If peace is ever to take hold in our communities and cities, it must first be practiced within the small but vital circle of family. From there, it radiates outward—into workplaces, neighborhoods, and parish life. Peace does not emerge by accident; it is cultivated through deliberate acts of self-giving love, through daily choosing to be light rather than shadow, hope rather than despair, tenderness rather than hostility. As we honor the Holy Family, may we also recommit ourselves to nurturing the families God has placed in our care—whether they be families by blood, marriage, friendship, or community.

Next weekend, we will celebrate another great feast of the Christmas season: the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord. The Magi—wise seekers from the East—remind us that Christ's coming is a universal gift. They traveled from the land of the rising sun, following a star that drew them beyond what was familiar. Their journey reflects the human longing for truth, beauty, and meaning, a longing that ultimately finds its fulfillment in the person of Jesus Christ. The gifts they offered hold deep significance. Gold acknowledges Christ as King—Lord not only of Israel but of all nations. Frankincense proclaims Him as God, worthy of worship and adoration. Myrrh, a burial ointment, foreshadows His passion and reveals that His kingship is expressed not in worldly power but in self-sacrificial love. Epiphany celebrates this manifestation of Christ to the world, a world still yearning for light. It challenges us to become like the Magi—courageous seekers of God, willing to rise and follow where He leads, and ready to offer our very best in response to His love.

As we continue to rejoice in this holy season, I want to extend heartfelt gratitude on behalf of the clergy and staff. Monsignor Chibuke, Father Luis, and I are deeply thankful for the many gifts, cards, prayers, and Christmas treats so generously shared with us. Each gesture of kindness reflects the warmth, goodness, and generosity of this extraordinary parish. Please know how sincerely we appreciate your thoughtfulness. To all our parish family, to visitors who are with us for the holidays, and to those traveling home or returning to us: a blessed and joy-filled Merry Christmas from the clergy and our dedicated lay ecclesial staff. May the light of Christ shine upon you in these days, strengthen your families, guide your steps, and fill your hearts with enduring peace.

With prayers for peace from God, our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ,

Fr. Norbert

Take notice of the poor among us

On the walls of the North American headquarters of the Divine Word Missionaries there is a painting from China that depicts the Holy Family living as Chinese peasants. What's especially interesting is that the painting shows them to be poor. In their small hut some paint is peeling from the walls, clothes are patched, and the table has seen better days. While Saint Joseph was probably not desperately poor, he and his family belonged to the vast majority of people who were outside the small elite who controlled most of the wealth and pulled the strings in ancient Palestine. So when Jesus talked about bringing Good News to the poor, he was talking about a whole lot of people, including his own family. What can you do to uplift the poor in your own family and beyond?

Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14; Colossians 3:12-21 or 3:12-17; Matthew 2:13-15, 19-23 (17). "Whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus."

Boundaries will set us free

The Russian composer Igor Stravinsky once wrote, "The more constraints one imposes, the more one frees one's self." It may sound paradoxical, but boundaries are necessary in life as well as in art. They provide a structure, a space in which we can most fully explore what it means to live and work and create. Far from restricting our freedom, limits actually give us our freedom. How is this so? Recall a time when you gave yourself unlimited time to finish a project. Did you? Our loving creator gave us commandments for this very reason. They are the constraints that allow us to learn fully who we are—and who God is.

A matter of importance

"The world and its enticement are passing away." These words from scripture evoke the dualism so much favored by certain New Testament writers, reflecting a mode of thought in which there continues a never-ending battle between good and evil, the world of darkness and the world of light. Christians believe that the battle is won, the world is redeemed. Yet anyone who has lived long enough knows that redeemed as "the world" may be, it is foolish to expect that worldly things provide us with all we need. This is what Saint Paul means when he speaks of the "things that really matter." We, too, in moments of clarity—after a close call with illness or death—come to recognize what is most important to us. And they are rarely the things that occupy most of our time, energy, or worry. Take time today to reflect on what truly matters in your life.

SIXTH DAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD

1 John 2:12-17; Luke 2:36-40 (203). "Do not love the world or the things of the world. ... the world and its enticement are passing away."

In with the new

Just before midnight most people will be awake and anticipating the end of one year and the beginning of a new one. But when scripture talks about endings and beginnings, it means more than putting up a new calendar. The last hour means a new world is about to begin. God has done something new in Jesus. We are reborn to new life through him. "Consider all the past as nothing," says Saint Francis de Sales, "and say, like David; 'Now I begin to love my God.'" How will you begin to love your God tonight, tomorrow, and every day?

SEVENTH DAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD

1 John 2:18-21; John 1:1-18 (204). "It is the last hour."

Peace offering

In a world torn by hateful discourse, violence, and war, we have been given the Prince of Peace to show us how to live in harmony. God's peace begins within us and then extends to our families, workplaces, schools, churches, marketplaces, and halls of government. We can begin spreading peace with a simple prayer, like the one found in the Book of Numbers: "The LORD bless you and keep you! The LORD let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you! The LORD look upon you kindly and give you peace!" With our hearts set on God's peace we can begin to take steps to resolve the small and large conflicts in our lives. What a welcome gift that would be at the start of this new year.

OCTAVE DAY OF THE NATIVITY OF THE LORD; SOLEMNITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, THE MOTHER OF GOD

Numbers 6:22-27; Galatians 4:4-7; Luke 2:16-21 (18). "When the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son,"

Divine revelations

In sin we reject part of our humanity—the humanity of the Garden of Eden, where there is no shame or guilt but an open acceptance of God's love. Fortunately for us, God meets our rejection by continually offering to restore our humanity and share in his divinity. As Saint Basil the Great points out, "It did not suffice God merely to call us back to life, but he has also granted us the dignity of His Godhead." The love God holds for us is so unchangeable it not only brings us back from death and sin but also shows us a path to sharing in God's divinity. That is a truth worth remembering.

MEMORIAL OF BASIL THE GREAT AND GREGORY NAZIANZEN, BISHOPS, DOCTORS OF THE CHURCH

1 John 2:22-28; John 1:19-28 (205). "Let what you heard from the beginning remain in you."

Saturday, Jan 03, 2026

What's in a name?

In the gospels the name of Jesus carries lots of weight. God gave Jesus his name, which means "salvation," before Jesus was conceived. People healed in the name of Jesus. Jesus was present to those who gathered in his name. For his disciples their mission was to proclaim his name to all nations and bring the love of Christ to the world. Thus, living in the name said who you were, what you believed, and what you were to do. "Jesus is the way that you must walk, and the truth that you must believe, and the life that you must live," says Saint John Eudes. Consider what you can do each day to live more fully in the name of Jesus.

MEMORIAL OF THE MOST HOLY NAME OF JESUS

1 John 2:29-3:6; John 1:29-34 (206). "Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God."

Give a warm welcome

America was once renowned as the land where people could come to breathe freely. The country was less settled then—but can feel quite crowded now, depending on where you're living. The planet's resources are scarcer and the natural environment more endangered. Still, Isaiah's prophecy and the gospel both remind us of the considerable gift that migrant people bring with them. Whether king or commoner, each person offers what they have to make the dynamic community that is the United States. Let's welcome the newcomer and remember that the infant Jesus was once a migrant, too.

SOLEMNITY OF THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Isaiah 60:1-6; Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6; Matthew 2:1-12 (20). "Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you."

Surrender to God's will

At St. Alphonsus Church in downtown Baltimore you can visit the parish where Saint John Neumann served before he became a bishop. You can even step into his austere bedroom where a bed, tiny desk, kneeler, and picture of the Madonna make up his belongings. Simplicity was his obsession; becoming the bishop of Philadelphia certainly didn't fit into that plan. Yet he embraced his office and took on the task of serving the burgeoning immigrant church by learning 10 languages and doing what was best for the people he served and loved. When God speaks to you, try the gentle path of surrender.

MEMORIAL OF JOHN NEUMANN, BISHOP

1 John 3:22-4:6; Matthew 4:12-17, 23-25 (212). "We receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him."

Love begets love

A prayer to André Bessette, a brother of the Holy Cross order who spent a lifetime counseling and praying for people from his desk at the entrance to his community's residence in Montreal, says: "Grant us the grace to imitate his piety and charity so that, with him, we may share the reward promised to all those who care for their neighbor because of their love for you." Love comes from God, and we love others because we love God and find God's love in our love for others. Speaking of poor people, but in words that describe all Christian love, Catholic Worker cofounder Dorothy Day once said we start by loving the poor for Jesus but we soon love them for themselves and see each one to be special. Today, find God in others and others in God.

MEMORIAL OF ANDRÉ BESSETTE, RELIGIOUS

1 John 4:7-10; Mark 6:34-44 (213). "Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God."

Soften your heart

How often have you walked down a street, looking down at the sidewalk or your phone, and not noticed a tree, or a sign, or even an entire building? When you finally notice it, you wonder how you could have missed it all this time. This phenomenon of not seeing what is right in front of us is not uncommon, nor is it limited to the physical realm. We are often blind to spiritual realities as well. When this happens, we know our hearts are "hardened." What does it take to soften our hearts so that we can perceive the love that surrounds and permeates us every moment of every day? It begins with desire, which forms an intention, which evolves into practice, which turns into prayer, which relies on God. Consider this prayer from Sister Marianne Cope, O.S.F. for inspiration: "Let us make best use of the fleeting moments. They will not return."

1 John 4:11-18; Mark 6:45-52 (214). "They had not understood the incident of the loaves. On the contrary, their hearts were hardened."

The ABCs of the human heart

Did Jesus know how to read? You may think that a strange question—various scripture passages say he did, and how could he not be able to do something that most schoolchildren in the United States today have learned by the age of 6 or 7? But for most of recorded history, being able to read and write was reserved to a small, elite segment of society. In the Roman Empire at the time Jesus lived, estimates say that only 3-10 percent of the population was literate. Judaism has always emphasized reading and study of the Torah, however, so it should not surprise us that Jesus likely could read—he certainly read the human heart with complete understanding. What does he find written on your heart?

1 John 4:19-5:4; Luke 4:14-22 (215). "He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah."

Some rules are meant to be broken

Why, when Jesus heals a leper, does he always tell the person not to say anything to anybody? Perhaps it is because the Lord broke a rule there. You see, according to the law of Moses, he wasn't supposed to touch the leper. But he did. Jesus broke a lot of rules. That's why he got into so much trouble. But Jesus was concerned with following God's laws, not humanity's, and such obedience, as Saint Philip Neri says, "is a shortcut to perfection." Jesus pointed out that the law was made for the sake of people, not the other way around. Mercy and compassion always manage to break a few rules.

1 John 5:5-13; Luke 5:12-16 (216). "He ordered him not to tell anyone."

Do your groundwork

If you came to Earth from outer space, the sheer amount of teaching on chastity—the virtue of expressing sexuality appropriately—would convince you that it's the one non-negotiable item on your spiritual checklist. While chastity is essential, humility is the fundamental virtue upon which a holy life is based. Humility comes from the word humus, earth or ground. It reminds us that we're dust—or "not the Christ," as John the Baptist famously put it. As we decrease in centrality, God and others increase. Start from this "ground" and work your way up.

1 John 5:14-21; John 3:22-30 (217). "John answered ... 'So this joy of mine has been made complete. He must increase; I must decrease.'"

PASTOR'S COLUMN

Queridos hermanos,

“El pueblo que caminaba en las tinieblas ha visto una gran luz; sobre los que habitaban en el país de la oscuridad ha brillado una luz” Con estas antiguas palabras del profeta Isaías, la Iglesia nos presenta el radiante misterio que hemos celebrado a lo largo de esta semana santa: la Luz que brilla sobre nosotros, trayéndonos salvación y paz. Esa Luz es Jesucristo, nuestro Señor. ¡Feliz Navidad a todos!

La Navidad no es simplemente la conmemoración de un acontecimiento del pasado. Es la celebración de un evento que continúa dando forma a nuestra identidad y a nuestra misión. En la humildad de Belén, Dios entró en la historia humana y eligió habitar entre nosotros, no como una deidad distante, sino como un niño cuya luz disipa el miedo y cuya presencia da sentido a toda vida humana. Gracias a su venida, ya no caminamos en la oscuridad. Gracias a que ha entrado en nuestro mundo, el miedo ya no necesita dominar nuestros corazones. En virtud de nuestro bautismo, no solo somos receptores de su luz, sino que nos convertimos en portadores de esa luz. Cada uno de nosotros comparte la misión de Cristo, la Luz de las naciones. Cuando fuimos bautizados, se nos entregó una vela con la encomienda de mantener viva esa llama. En otras palabras, se nos confía la responsabilidad de ser instrumentos de la paz de Dios en un mundo que la anhela desesperadamente. La proclamación de los ángeles en la noche de Navidad no fue un simple sentimiento poético; fue una declaración de nuestra vocación: «Gloria a Dios en las alturas, y en la tierra paz a los hombres de buena voluntad». Mediante nuestra colaboración con Dios —a través de las decisiones diarias de bondad, misericordia, perdón e integridad— contribuimos a establecer una paz que trasciende toda comprensión humana, una paz que solo Dios puede dar.

Este fin de semana, durante la Octava de Navidad, la Iglesia nos invita a reflexionar sobre la Sagrada Familia de Jesús, María y José. Su humilde hogar en Nazaret nos revela tanto la belleza como los desafíos de la vida familiar. Es en la familia —la Iglesia doméstica— donde el corazón humano aprende por primera vez lo qué es la compasión, qué se siente al comprender al otro, cómo el perdón transforma el espíritu herido y cómo se cultiva la paz. Las familias pueden ser lugares de risas y alegría; también pueden experimentar tensiones, desacuerdos o dolor. Sin embargo, Dios eligió santificar la familia humana al formar parte de una. Al hacerlo, afirmó que incluso los lazos imperfectos y a veces frágiles de la vida familiar pueden convertirse en el lugar donde la gracia echa raíces. Quizás este sea uno de los milagros más profundos de la Navidad: que Dios puede usar las imperfecciones de nuestras vidas, las rupturas en nuestras relaciones y las dificultades que afrontamos para manifestar su plan de salvación para el mundo. Si la paz ha de arraigarse en nuestras comunidades y ciudades, primero debe practicarse en el pequeño pero vital círculo de la familia. Desde allí, se irradia hacia afuera: a los lugares de trabajo, los barrios y la vida parroquial. La paz no surge por casualidad; se cultiva a través de actos deliberados de amor generoso, eligiendo cada día ser luz en lugar de sombra, esperanza en lugar de desesperación, ternura en lugar de hostilidad. Al honrar a la Sagrada Familia, renovemos también nuestro compromiso de cuidar a las familias que Dios ha puesto bajo nuestro cuidado, ya sean familias de sangre, por matrimonio, por amistad o por comunidad.

El próximo fin de semana celebraremos otra gran fiesta del tiempo de Navidad: la Solemnidad de la Epifanía del Señor. Los Reyes Magos, sabios buscadores del Oriente, nos recuerdan que la venida de Cristo es un don universal. Viajaron desde la tierra del sol naciente, siguiendo una estrella que los guió más allá de lo conocido. Su viaje refleja el anhelo humano de verdad, belleza y sentido, un anhelo que finalmente encuentra su plenitud en la persona de Jesucristo. Los dones que ofrecieron tienen un profundo significado. El oro reconoce a Cristo como Rey, Señor no solo de Israel, sino de todas las naciones. El incienso lo proclama como Dios, digno de adoración y veneración. La mirra, ungüento funerario, prefigura su pasión y revela que su reinado no se expresa en el poder terrenal, sino en el amor que se entrega a sí mismo. La Epifanía celebra esta manifestación de Cristo al mundo, un mundo que aún anhela la luz. Nos desafía a ser como los Reyes Magos: buscadores valientes de Dios, dispuestos a levantarnos y seguirlo a dondequiera que nos guíe, y listos para ofrecer lo mejor de nosotros mismos en respuesta a su amor.

Mientras seguimos celebrando esta santa temporada, quiero expresarles mi más sincero agradecimiento en nombre del clero y del personal de la parroquia. Monseñor Chibuike, el Padre Luis y yo estamos profundamente agradecidos por los numerosos regalos, tarjetas, oraciones y dulces navideños que tan generosamente han compartido con nosotros. Cada gesto de bondad refleja la calidez, la bondad y la generosidad de esta extraordinaria comunidad parroquial. Sepan que apreciamos de corazón su consideración. A toda nuestra familia parroquial, a los visitantes que nos acompañan durante estas fiestas y a quienes viajan a casa o regresan a nuestra comunidad: les deseamos una Feliz Navidad llena de bendiciones y alegría, de parte del clero y de nuestro dedicado personal laico. Que la luz de Cristo brille sobre ustedes en estos días, fortalezca a sus familias, guíe sus pasos y llene sus corazones de una paz duradera.

Con mis oraciones por la paz de Dios, nuestro Padre, y del Señor Jesucristo,

Dar una cálida bienvenida

América fue alguna vez conocida como la tierra donde la gente podía venir a respirar libremente. El país estaba menos poblado entonces—pero ahora puede sentirse lleno de gente, dependiendo de dónde vives. Los recursos del planeta son más escasos y el ambiente natural más en vías de extinción. Aún así, la profecía de Isaías y el evangelio, ambos nos recuerdan el gran talento que la gente inmigrante trae con ellos. Ya sea el rey o el plebeyo, cada persona ofrece lo que tiene para hacer la comunidad dinámica que son los Estados Unidos. Vamos a darle la bienvenida y recordemos que el infante Jesús fue alguna vez un migrante, también.

SOLEMNIDAD DE LA EPIFANÍA DEL SEÑOR
Isaías 60:1-6; Efesios 3:2-3a, 5-6; Mateo 2:1-12 (20).

“Levanta los ojos y mira alrededor: todos se reúnen y vienen a ti.”

BAUTISMO INFANTIL

MATRIMONIO

Para todas las parejas, el primer paso en la preparación para el matrimonio en nuestra parroquia es inscribirse y asistir a la Sesión de Orientación Matrimonial (disponible solo en inglés), que se ofrece el cuarto domingo de cada mes en el Edificio Faber. Para reservar su lugar en la Sesión de Orientación Matrimonial, comuníquese con el Coordinador del Sacramento del Matrimonio al 346-290-7610 o visite silcc.org/es-mx/matrimony para obtener más información.

VOCACIONES

¿Te llama Dios? Envía un correo electrónico a vocations@silcc.org para más información sobre los próximos programas para quienes buscan vocaciones religiosas como sacerdote, diácono o religiosa.

Toma nota de los pobres entre nosotros

En las paredes de las oficinas centrales norteamericanas de los Misioneros de la Divina Palabra hay una pintura de China que representa a la Santa Familia viviendo como campesinos chinos. Lo que es especialmente interesante es que la pintura los muestra siendo pobres. En su pequeña cabaña la pintura se está descarapelando de las paredes, la ropa está remendada en partes, la mesa ya usada. Aunque Santo José probablemente no era desesperadamente pobre, él y su familia pertenecían a la inmensa mayoría de gente que estaba fuera de la pequeña élite que controlaba la mayoría de la riqueza y decidía en la antigua Palestina. Así que cuando Jesús habló sobre traer buenas nuevas a los pobres, hablaba de muchísima gente, incluyendo su propia familia. ¿Qué puedes hacer para darle ánimo a los pobres en tu propia familia y a los demás?

FIESTA DE LA SAGRADA FAMILIA DE JESÚS, MARÍA Y JOSÉ

Sirácida 3:3-7, 14-17a; Colosenses 3:12-21 o 3:12-17; Mateo 2:13-15, 19-23 (17). "Todo lo que digan y todo lo que hagan, háganlo en el nombre del Señor Jesús."
