IRA Charitable Distributions

1. Gifts from an IRA, Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCD), are popular forms of end-of-year giving for those 70 1/2 or older. A donor can make a gift directly from their IRA to the parish which can result in a reduction in annual taxes owed. Gifts to the parish alone can be mailed directly to the parish.
2. Gifts of appreciated stock allow donors to make an impact to the mission of the church and avoid capital gains on the appreciated shares that are donated to a qualified charity. A donor must complete a stock letter of intent.

The Development Department at the Downtown Chancery is available to assist your parish and community with these transactions. The Letter of Intent forms, which are necessary to initiate a donation of stock or gift from an IRA, and to allow proper donor identification and gift designation, are available for download from the Archdiocesan-website:

www.archgh.org/ways-to-give.

For inquiries about gifts of stock or from an IRA to Cindi Garcia in the Finance Office at 713-652-8248.

DIocese OF LITTLE ROCK
OFFICE OF VOCATIONS
OFICINA DE VOCACIONES
2500 N TYLER ST. LITTLE ROCK, AR 72207 · (501) 664-0340

Monday, April 13, 2026

Dear Fr. Norbert and the people of St. Ignatius,

He is risen! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

It was such a joy to worship with you as we celebrated the Passion of the Lord just a few weeks ago. That liturgy is already a longer one, so I am extremely grateful you were willing to endure my words in the midst of so solemn an occasion. Your generosity of heart and hospitality mean so much to me. I truly feel like I've come home every time I'm fortunate enough to visit.

As I was returning to Little Rock, I learned that I was needed to fill in for a priest at one of our small mission parishes for the Easter Triduum. I want you to know that while our little faithful community gave ourselves over to the Paschal Mystery, you too were in my heart. As one of my intentions for Mass on Easter morning, I prayed for your community as you continue to proclaim the Easter victory. Always remember that y'all have this silly priest in Arkansas praying for you daily.

In truth, I am so grateful that you gave me the opportunity to share about my ministry in the diocese of Little Rock. Thank you for your faith. Thank you for your hope. Thank you for your love. May God who has graced you with these gifts in this life bring them to a joyful fulfillment in the resurrected life to come!

All the best,

Fr. Jeff Hebert

Hope beyond hope

One of the greatest gifts that comes with the knowledge of Christ's death and Resurrection is hope. Christians live free from existential fears of meaninglessness and extinction because Christ showed us that our lives have eternal purpose: To love and serve God and others. The vocation that is right for you is the one that enables you in your own unique way to follow the call of love and service most joyfully.

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER; GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY; WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS
Acts 2:14a, 36-41; 1 Peter 2:20b-25; John 10:1-10 (49). "I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly."

Pure grace

The notion of what is "clean" and "unclean" is very important in Judaism, especially among Orthodox Jews. Purification rituals are observed for various occasions, and many of them require the ritual washing of the hands, or at times a full immersion. Early Christianity had to struggle with questions of purity as it grew and encountered the Gentile world. Some say that Baptism represents a form of ritual purification adapted from Judaism, and that even the dipping of fingertips in holy water upon entering church is part of that tradition. The apostle Peter helped the Early Church move beyond a narrow definition of purity. Spend some time today reflecting on what helps you feel "clean and pure" spirituality, and then practice it.

EASTER WEEKDAY
Acts 11:1-18; John 10:11-18 (279). "What God has made clean, you are not to call profane."

How to define the Word

In today's reading the Jewish leaders ask Jesus to be straight with them: Are you or are you not the Messiah? Jesus says he's answered the question and they chose not to believe. In essence, Jesus says, "Every part of my mission screams savior." But Jesus is a man of metaphor. For Jesus, words are directly related to love. Words and deeds go hand in hand. If you aren't living out his saving mission, then you will have a difficult time recognizing the meaning and truth behind his teachings. Follow Jesus in deed, and his words will become easier to understand.

EASTER WEEKDAY
Acts 11:19-26; John 10:22-30 (280). "If you are the Christ, tell us plainly."

Bringing truth and love to light

Saint Catherine of Siena (1347-80) was a fearless defender of the faith and papacy during fractious times. When declaring her a doctor of the church in 1970, Pope Paul VI referred to Catherine's unique "charism of exhortation," which is to say she never minced words. She sent copious letters to church officials and monarchs across Europe offering a piece of her mind. She berated cardinals for treachery, urged Pope Gregory XI not to be a coward, and told Pope Urban VI to control his temper. Catherine's spirituality centers on self-knowledge as the path to love and truth. Heed her advice and spend time in honest self-reflection, which, says

Catherine, allows you to know God's goodness toward you, and "upon knowledge follows love."

MEMORIAL OF CATHERINE OF SIENA, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Acts 12:24-13:5a; John 12:44-50 (281). "I came into the world as light."

Home-grown forgiveness

Home cooking is great, but sometimes we are hurt the worst by the folks who share food at our table. Our spouses, our siblings, our children, and our grandchildren often betray the family trust and cause us pain that's hard to forgive. Yet there is within us the presence of the one who carried the cross of our own sinfulness. Just as Jesus forgave his closest disciples, those who betrayed him, denied him, and abandoned him in his hour of need, we have the power to forgive our family members for their offenses against us. "Sometimes 'plates fly,'" said Pope Francis about family life, "but if love is real, then peace is made quickly." Indeed, peace, like charity, begins at home.

EASTER WEEKDAY
Acts 13:13-25; John 13:16-20 (282). "The one who ate my food has raised his heel against me."

The winding path of faith

The apostles didn't know who they were destined to be when they began to follow Jesus. The same could be said of all of us who start down the path of faith with faltering and uncertain steps. Maybe someday we'll be part of the canon of saints like Thomas, who up to the Last Supper was still asking Jesus where this road was headed. Obviously it had yet to occur to him that he would be one of the 12 founders of our apostolic tradition. Nor can we imagine who we might become if we continue on this faith journey. Saint Angela Merici has some advice that might help us plan our course: "Do now—do now—what you'll wish you had done when your moment comes to die."

EASTER WEEKDAY
Acts 13:26-33; John 14:1-6 (283). "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?"

Stand firm

Saint Athanasius was the fourth-century bishop of Alexandria, an important city in Egypt. He is best known for his opposition to the Arian heresy, which denied the full divinity of Christ. In taking this stand, Athanasius faced opposition by many within the church and incurred the wrath of emperors, who banished him five times. He spent a total of 17 years in exile. His courageous witness gave rise to the expression Athanasius contra mundum: "Athanasius against the world." When you take a stand against misinformation and moral error, you may share in the pain of persecution. In those moments remember these encouraging words attributed to Athanasius: "No one, ever, will prevail against your faith."

MEMORIAL OF ATHANASIUS, BISHOP, DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Acts 13:44-52; John 14:7-14 (284). "Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me."

First Holy Communion Masses

Misas de la Primera Comunión

Saturday, May 16 at 5:15 PM

Sunday, May 17 at 10 AM

*el domingo, 17 de mayo
a las 12:30 PM*

Pray for our children preparing to receive Holy Communion for the first time. May they encounter our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament with joy!

¡Oremos por nuestros niños que se preparan para recibir la Primera Comunión para que puedan encontrarse con alegría con nuestro Señor en el Santísimo Sacramento!

Alleluia! He is Risen! Alleluia!

The Fourth Sunday of Easter is also called Good Shepherd Sunday, a name derived from the Gospel. Today we pray especially for our own shepherds—the priests—and for all those whom God is calling to a priestly vocation.

And still we joyfully exult until Pentecost Sunday: the descent of the Holy Spirit and the birthday of the Church.

HAPPY EASTER. PARISH FAMILY!

¡Aleluya! ¡Cristo ha resucitado! ¡Aleluya!

El cuarto domingo de Pascua se conoce también como Domingo del Buen Pastor, nombre que proviene del Evangelio. Hoy oramos especialmente por nuestros pastores—los sacerdotes—y por todos aquellos a quienes Dios llama a la vocación sacerdotal.

Y seguimos exultando con alegría hasta el Domingo de Pentecostés: el descenso del Espíritu Santo y el nacimiento de la Iglesia.

¡FELIZ PASCUA. FAMILIA PARROQUIAL!

The Catechism of the Catholic Church on Just War Doctrine

All citizens and all governments are obliged to work for the avoidance of war. However, "as long as the danger of war persists and there is no international authority with the necessary competence and power, governments cannot be denied the right of lawful self-defense, once all peace efforts have failed." (CCC, no. 2308)

The strict conditions for legitimate defense by military force require rigorous consideration. The gravity of such a decision makes it subject to rigorous conditions of moral legitimacy. At one and the same time:

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 The damage inflicted by the aggressor on the nation or community of nations must be lasting, grave, and certain; | 2 All other means of putting an end to it must have been shown to be impractical or ineffective; |
| 3 There must be serious prospects of success; | 4 The use of arms must not produce evils and disorders graver than the evil to be eliminated. The power of modern means of destruction weighs very heavily in evaluating this condition. |

These are the traditional elements enumerated in what is called the "just war" doctrine. The evaluation of these conditions for moral legitimacy belongs to the prudential judgment of those who have responsibility for the common good.

(CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH, NO. 2309)

The Church and human reason both assert the permanent validity of the moral law during armed conflict. "The mere fact that war has regrettably broken out does not mean that everything becomes licit between the warring parties." (CCC, no. 2312)

PRAY FOR PEACE.

OFFICE OF VOCATIONS
OFICINA DE VOCACIONES
2500 N TYLER ST. LITTLE ROCK, AR 72207 · (501) 664-0340

El Lunes, Abril 13, 2026

Padre Norbert y la comunidad de San Ignacio:

¡Él resucitó! ¡Aleluya! ¡Aleluya! ¡Aleluya!

Me dio mucha alegría celebrar con ustedes cuando conmemoramos la Pasión del Señor hace unas semanas. Esa liturgia ya es larga, así que les agradezco muchísimo que hayan soportado mis palabras en medio de una celebración tan solemne. Su generosidad y hospitalidad significan mucho para mí. De verdad siento que cada vez que tengo la suerte de visitar, vuelvo a casa.

De regreso a Little Rock me avisaron que hacía falta un sacerdote para cubrir el Triduo Pascual en una de nuestras pequeñas parroquias misioneras, así que estuve ayudando allá. Quiero que sepan que, mientras nuestra pequeña comunidad se entregaba al Misterio Pascual, ustedes también estaban en mi corazón. Como una de mis intenciones en la Misa de la mañana de Pascua, la ofrecí por su comunidad para que ustedes sigan proclamando la victoria pascual. Nunca olviden ustedes que tienen a este sacerdote sencillo en Arkansas rezando por ustedes todos los días.

En serio, les agradezco que me dieran la oportunidad de hablar sobre mi ministerio en la diócesis de Little Rock. Gracias por su fe. Gracias por su esperanza. Gracias por su amor. ¡Que Dios, que les ha concedido de estas gracias en esta vida, los lleve a un gozo pleno en la vida resucitada que vendrá!

Todo el bien,

Hijo de la Parroquia de San Ignacio de Loyola
Director de Vocaciones y Seminaristas
Prefect, La Casa de Formación

Esperanza más allá de la esperanza

Uno de los mayores dones que nos brinda el conocimiento de la muerte y resurrección de Cristo es la esperanza. Los cristianos vivimos libres de los temores existenciales de la falta de sentido y la extinción, porque Cristo nos mostró que nuestras vidas tienen un propósito eterno: amar y servir a Dios y al prójimo. La vocación adecuada para ti es aquella que te permite, a tu manera única, seguir la llamada del amor y del servicio con la mayor alegría.
