beatific vision:

The sight of God enjoyed by the saints in heaven, which produces perfect and eternal happiness.

If God contains the fullness of all good things in himself like an inexhaustible fountain, nothing beyond him is to be sought by those who strive after the highest good and all the elements of happiness...

John Calvin, Institutes of the Christian Religion [1559]

As for me, I will be vindicated and will see your face; when I awake, I will be satisfied with seeing your likeness.

Psalm 17:15

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

Matthew 5:8

...without holiness no one will see the Lord.

Hebrews 12:14

The critical question for our generation—and for every generation—is this: If you could have heaven, with no sickness, and with all the friends you ever had on earth, and all the food you ever liked, and all the leisure activities you ever enjoyed, and all the natural beauties you ever saw, all the physical pleasures you ever tasted, and no human conflict or any natural disasters, could you be satisfied with heaven, if Christ were not there?
