

Morrow County Supplemental Forms

ANSWER/COUNTERCLAIM – DIVORCE WITH CHILDREN

This packet is designed to help litigants respond to a divorce action filed in Morrow County, Ohio. We suggest you read these instruction pages completely before starting to complete the included forms.

You are receiving a packet of documents to respond, pro se, to a divorce action filed in Court by your spouse. Pro se means you will complete these documents on your own, file them, and represent yourself. Please note that this packet is intended to help you comply with the local rule requirements of the Common Pleas Court of Morrow County, Domestic Relations Division at the time this packet was created. The Local Rules may change and you may want to check the local rules, at <http://commonpleas.morrowcountyohio.gov/index.php/2012-11-20-02-38-33/domestic-relations-rules> before you file. You will need another packet with Ohio Supreme Court Forms, in addition to this packet of forms, to respond to the divorce action. Please make sure you have both packets of forms before you file.

When you have completed the forms in this packet and the Ohio Supreme Court forms you are ready to file at the Clerk of Courts. You will file at The Clerk of Court, located in the Common Pleas Court of Morrow County, 48 E. High St., Mount Gilead, Ohio. We suggest you bring copies when you file. Copies should be made after you have the documents fully completed and notarized. You should bring four (4) copies of the Counterclaim, if you choose to file one, and three (3) copies of every other filing. If you do not have copies made, the Clerk will make copies at a charge to you. We do not know what this charge will be. We suggest you keep a copy of everything you file, and everything your spouse files, with your important papers.

CAUTION: Divorce and custody affect important rights and involve difficult legal concepts. If you can afford an attorney, it would be reckless to proceed without one. Even licensed attorneys often refer the division of certain assets, such as retirement accounts and real estate, to specialists.

Remember, your spouse's attorney does not represent you and you should not rely upon them for advice or explanations.

By providing these forms, the Legal Aid Society of Columbus and the attorneys who are on its staff have NOT agreed to represent you and WILL NOT be available to answer your questions regarding these forms.

Complete the blank sections and attach a copy to your Counterclaim (Uniform Domestic Relations Form 9), found in the Ohio Supreme Court Packet. Read this Notice carefully. It outlines your and your spouse's duty to keep the Court informed of your address during the case.
Restraining Order	This Order is required only if you file a Counterclaim. Attach a copy of this Order to your Counterclaim (Uniform Domestic Relations Form 9), found in the Ohio Supreme Court Packet. Rule 1	Do NOT file this with your other paperwork. This is Rule 1 of the Morrow County Court of Common Pleas, Domestic Relations Division local rules. It states that you are required to attend a Parenting Class before your divorce is final. One option is Marion County's P.E.A.C.E. Program. To register for that course call the Marion County Family Court at (740) 223-4060. Other courses may be accepted, but you may be required to contact the Court for permission.

IMPORTANT: If you are receiving ADC or Medicaid, do not complete this application because you became eligible for child support services when you signed the ADC/Medicaid application.

I, _____, request child support services from the _____ CSEA (Child Support Enforcement Agency). I understand and agree to the following:

- A. I am a resident of the county in which services are requested and no other Ohio county has jurisdiction over support – OR – I am requesting services from the Ohio county of jurisdiction.
- B. The only fee that can be charged for services is a one dollar application fee. Some counties pay this fee for the applicants.
- C. Recipients of child support services shall cooperate to the best of their ability with the CSEA. (See attached rights and responsibility information).
- D. In providing IV-D services, the CSEA and any of its contracted agents (e.g., prosecutors, attorneys, hearing officers, etc.) represent the best interest of the children of the state of Ohio and do not represent any IV-D recipient or the IV-D recipient's personal interest.

The Child Support Enforcement Agency can assist you in providing the following services:

Parents Education About Children's Emotions

Ohio law requires that all divorcing parents with minor children attend a course to provide information about the effects that a parental divorce may have on children. In Marion County, that course is called P.E.A.C.E (Parents Education About Children's Emotions). That Course is offered twice a month at times that the majority of attendees have stated were convenient. The Court understands that due to work schedules, relocations, time constraints, as well as various other issues, some parents may not be able to attend a live course. Therefore, the Court will accept certificates of completion from the any of the listed online courses as satisfaction of the legal requirement.
