Kent Youth Trials Club

Minutes of the KYTC Committee Meeting held on Friday 10th April 1992 at The Bull East Farleigh at 8pm.

Present: Bob & Lynda Thompson, John & Cathy Bird, Roger Thompson, Peter Sadler, Judy McRoberts, Carol Dunk.

In Attendance: Carol Thompson

Apologies Ross Thompson, Brian & Steve Dunk, Stuart Gilbert, Ann Reynolds Vic Stone.

Minutes of last Meeting

The minutes of the last meeting were agreed as a true record: Proposed by Judy McRoberts, seconded by John Bird.

Matters Arising

Bob had spoken to John Reid about signing on at practices.

Chairmans Report

Bob had received a request that while queuing engines be switched off to save riders inhaling fumes and oil. This could really trouble the smaller riders with silencer tail pipes at face level. This could not be made a rule but as a request and be put in the magazine.

Thanks went to Nigel Craig and Carol Dunk for setting out the April Trial

Treasurers Report

In Brians absence Carol read out the financial report.

We had gained £91.51 interest on the premium account which now stood at £4662.50. Out goings to be paid. Betty Briffitt of Robertsbridge, Red Cross, Clippers, Blue Circle, & Sheppey Club.

Membership Secretary

One new rider this month Thomas Stymest a C rider from Detling. Richard Hayward had renewed. Proposed by Carol, seconded by Cathy.

Competition Secretary

50 riders at April Trial 37 KYTC & 13 Folkstone MCC. She coped though it was a bit hectic but good practice for the National. The food went very well indeed sold out.

42 entries had been received for the National. Closing date was 11th and the programme almost complete.

Riders Report

Ross reported an enjoyable trial ditto by Stevie

Clerk of Course

Absent

Practice

Peter hopes to attend Parbutt, but not able to attend Ham Street. Chairman asked that practices be more strictly controlled, ie. no riding before signing on and closer control by the parents during the day. The coming practice there was to be no riding in the field. Roger to assist Peter and John.

General Secretary

Absent

Social Secretary

Trophies for the national in hand Bernie Nutbrown had very generously donated £150.00. Camping weekend to be put in the magazine. Hope was given in arranging another training session with a top rider in the Summer Holidays.

Safety Officer

Caravan to be installed near the entrance to the wood at the National and to arrive by 8.00am!

Roger expressed concern over practicing after the event. This was to be at the C of C permission. Bob to mention this at the next trial.

Raffle in had for the National

Observers Secretary

Absent

Machine Examiner

All OK in general including Ross's wheel bearings. Older lads still a problem with chain guards. Joe McMahon no kill button.

Editor

An amateur photographer had requested that he could take some photographs at our trials. Lynda to provide detail of how to get to our venues.

Press

Absent.

Report in MCN but not in TMX.

Forward Planning

Photo-copier playing up. Everyone asked to keep an eye open for a good replacement, advertise in mag.

Stakes needed for the National.

Hilda and Kerry will be doing the food at the National Stevie Dunk, Stevie Thompson, Simon Bird & Jonathan Allen have been invited to the S.E. Centre awards evening.

Next Meeting

Friday 8th May.
