Minutes of the K.Y.T.C. Committee Meeting held on Friday 29th December at the Bull E.Farleigh.

Present: John & Cathy Bird, Brian & Carol Dunk, Harley Stephens, Roy & Stuart Bridges, Stuart Gilbert, Judy McRoberts, Lynda & Bob Thompson.

1) Apologies for absence.

J.Williams.

2) Minutes.

The minutes of the previous meeting were deemed a true record and proposed by S.Bridges, seconded by C.Dunk.

3) Matters Arising.

Disco: Stuart Gilbert has arranged Disco for Awards Evening.

Combine: All organised as far as permit and gazette, awaiting papers from Blue Circle, Peter Howard progressing.

4) Chairmans Report.

Bob handed to Cathy fifty packs of five "stickers" with the new K.Y. logo. Nigel Craig had very generously donated 1100 of these to the Club. Thanks to Nigel to go in the magazine. Cathy to distribute stickers at Christmas Trial.

Bob read out a letter from Jacqui Williams, she will not be available for re-election as General Secretary due to Toby giving up trials.

Letter has been sent to Mr Goddard offering our support in his attempts to retain the use of Jumping Downs.

Letter sent to Lt. Col. Hicks re Chattenden Barracks, no reply as yet.

Fixtures List for 92 handed to Cathy for distribution in Dec. Mag.

5) Treasures Report.

Accounts to be presented at the A.G.M.

6) Membership Secretary.

Four new members this month proposed by Stuart Gilbert, seconded by Roy Bridges.

James Moore, A Class, from Sittingbourne

Hugh Stevenson, C Class, from Nutley

Jonathon Bartholomew, D Class, from Sittingbourne

Adam Derby, C Class, from London.

Lynda reported that she has received a letter from the Archway Project. After much discussion it was agreed that Bob would write a letter explaining that the Club is a family affair and unattended lads could lead to problems.

7) Competition Secretary.

Cathy thanked Kerry for standing in at the tea wagon while mum was ill in hospital, she also thanked the Club for the get well soon card.

8) Riders Report.

No trials report not done by time of meeting. Stuart thought it a good trial though.

Reports to be posted to Judy.

Stuart pointed out that the lads need to vote for the Michael Nutbrown Trophy, they would sort this out at the next trial and over the Christmas Holidays.

9) Clerk of the Course.

Stuart said that he got the impression that it was a good trial. Maybe the whites should be eased to accomodate the newer A riders.

The point was raised about consistency of observing, Lynda said she had enough trouble getting observers in the first place. New observers sec. to give advice and encourage observing.

10) Practice Secretary

Absent

11) General Secretary

Absent

12) Social & Trophy Secretary.

Tibbs Court for Christmas Trial O.K. with land owner.

Awards Evening is receiving a bit of attention still needs pushing though.
