Mission Statement

As Catholics committed to a sacramental life, we are called to be disciples of Christ and help one another as we journey to Heaven under the mantle of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Communion of Saints.

Guided by St. Luke, we evangelize by showing God's love, mercy, and generosity, through the traditions of the Catholic Church. We grow the faith through our love for the Eucharist and community outreach.

This Week's Reflection

Reflexión De Esta Semana

Death Has no Power Over Her

Have you ever wondered about how Mary's family and friends would have reacted to her passing? Have you ever thought about how the early Christians would have noticed right away that there was no tomb for the Mother of their Lord and Savior? The final resting place of one who had given birth to the Son of God would have been highly venerated, and would be a frequented pilgrimage site to this day. Yet it does not exist. There is no tomb, no headstone, no sign marking the place where her body is buried in the Holy Land.

In all of salvation history, only three people are to have been taken up to heaven without dying: Enoch, Elijah and the Blessed Virgin Mary, all highly favored servants of God. Today we celebrate the Blessed Mother's passing from this earthly life to the heavenly one, yet without passing through death. Our Eastern Rite brothers and sisters, believe she fell into a deep sleep, calling this feast The Dormition of Mary. This makes sense, since God surely would have wanted to call her to Himself in a most gentle and loving way. Just like she held Him in her arms as a sleeping babe, He now held her close as he carried her into eternity.

This feast reminds us once again that death is the result of sin. If the fall of man would not have happened, we would most likely all still be basking in the Garden of Eden. In fact, I sometimes ask myself if heaven isn't a replica of that original garden: the vivid colors, the fragrant flowers, the soft animals, the calming sound of waterfalls, the luscious fruits... all the beauty, joy and peace that awaits us on the other side. What sorrow it brings to have to wait for it! What a tragedy that because of our sin we first must die.

But not so for Mary, the Mother of God. She did not sin, so she did not die. May we ask for her intercession in a special way on her special day today. May we invoke her name to help us flee from sin and run into the arms of our loving Savior. Amen.

La muerte no tiene poder sobre ella

¿Te has preguntado alguna vez cómo reaccionaron los familiares y amigos de María ante su fallecimiento? ¿Has pensado alguna vez en cómo los primeros cristianos se hubieron dado cuenta de inmediato de que no había tumba para la Madre de su Señor y Salvador? El lugar de descanso final de quien dio a luz al Hijo de Dios habría sido muy venerado y un lugar frecuentado por peregrinos hasta el día de hoy. Sin embargo, no existe. No hay tumba, ni lápida, ni letrero que indique el lugar donde su cuerpo está enterrado en toda la Tierra Santa.

En toda la historia de la salvación, solo tres personas ascendieron al cielo sin morir: Enoc, Elías y la Santísima Virgen María, todos siendo siervos predilectos de Dios. Hoy celebramos el paso de la Santísima Madre de esta vida terrenal a la celestial, sin pasar por la muerte. Nuestros hermanos y hermanas del rito oriental creen que cayó en un sueño profundo, y llaman a esta fiesta la Dormición de María. Esto tiene sentido, ya que Dios seguramente habría querido llamarla a sí mismo de la manera más tierna y amorosa. Así como ella lo abrazó cuando era un bebé dormido, Él ahora la abraza muy fuerte mientras la lleva a la eternidad.

Esta fiesta nos recuerda una vez más que la muerte es el resultado del pecado. Si la caída del hombre no hubiera ocurrido, es probable que todos estaríamos disfrutando todavía del Jardín del Edén. De hecho, a veces me pregunto si el cielo no es una réplica de ese jardín original: los colores vivos, las flores fragantes, los animales suaves, el sonido relajante de las cascadas, los frutos deliciosos... toda la belleza, la alegría y la paz que nos esperan al otro lado. ¡Qué pena tener que esperarlo! ¡Qué tragedia que, por nuestro pecado, primero tengamos que morir!

Pero no fue así para María, la Madre de Dios. Ella no pecó, y por eso no murió. Pidamos su intercesión de manera especial en su día especial de hoy. Invoquemos su nombre para que nos ayude a huir del pecado y correr a los brazos de nuestro amoroso Salvador. Amen.
