St. Luke Catholic Church

Iglesia Catholica de San Lucas

James Tissot

Mission Statement

As Catholics committed to a sacramental life, we are called to be disciples of Christ and help one another as we journey to Heaven under the mantle of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Communion of Saints.

Guided by St. Luke, we evangelize by showing God's love, mercy, and generosity, through the traditions of the Catholic Church. We grow the faith through our love for the Eucharist and community outreach.

This Week's Reflection

Reflexión De Esta Semana

Know Your Saints

The Gospel for today's feast is always Matthew's account of the Beatitudes. At first they seem to favor the meek, the humble, the merciful. But then Jesus ends with some tough ones, aimed at those who are persecuted, insulted, and slandered. While it may sound negative, Jesus is actually giving us encouragement. We should expect to be treated harshly by unbelievers. In fact, some Christians would say that if you haven't made any enemies, you might not be a true disciple. So how do all those meek, humble, and merciful folks make enemies?

Jesus isn't telling us to make enemies, but not to be afraid if we do. An important part of our faith is the imperative to spread it. Some people do that by sharing their faith during their lunch break. Others teach formation classes to prospective Christians. Some try to bring Christian values into the legal system by advocating for the rights of the poor, the unborn, or immigrants. Some become missionaries in countries that disapprove of Christianity.

So there are many ways to spread the faith, and many types of saints who are celebrated today. Some were rejected by their families, some by their friends, and others by local government or even religious leaders. Some even gave their lives for their faith. That's what the first reading means by "washed . . . in the blood of the Lamb" (Revelation 7:14).

Maybe today would be a good day to learn about your favorite saint. What made her special? How did he spread the faith? What persecution did they suffer? Perhaps you could talk about the saints with your children. What saint shares a name with your child? As St. John says in the second reading, we are all God's children (1 John 3:2). The world that did not know Jesus does not know us. As we get to know our favorite saints, their lives can inspire us to face persecution or ridicule for our faith—or at least give us the courage to talk about our faith, and maybe change someone else's life.

Conocer a los Santos

El Evangelio de la fiesta de hoy siempre es el relato de Mateo de las Bienaventuranzas. Al principio, parecen favorecer a los mansos, humildes y misericordiosos. Pero luego Jesús termina con algunas bienaventuranzas duras, dirigidas a quienes son perseguidos, insultados y calumniados. Aunque pueda sonar negativo, Jesús en realidad nos anima. Debemos esperar ser tratados con dureza por los que no creen. De hecho, algunos cristianos dirían que si no te has hecho enemigos, quizás no seas un verdadero discípulo. Entonces, ¿cómo se hacen enemigos todas esas personas mansas, humildes y misericordiosas?

Jesús no nos dice que nos hagamos enemigos, sino que no tengamos miedo si los hacemos. Una parte importante de nuestra fe es el imperativo de difundirla. Algunos lo hacen compartiendo su fe durante la hora del almuerzo. Otros imparten clases de formación a futuros cristianos. Algunos intentan introducir los valores cristianos en el sistema legal defendiendo los derechos de los pobres, los no nacidos o los inmigrantes. Algunos se convierten en misioneros en países que no aprueban el cristianismo.

Así que hay muchas maneras de difundir la fe y muchos tipos de santos que se celebran hoy en día. Algunos fueron rechazados por sus familias, otros por sus amigos, otros por el gobierno local o incluso por líderes religiosos. Algunos incluso dieron su vida por su fe. Eso es lo que significa la primera lectura cuando dice "han lavado... con la sangre del Cordero" (Apocalipsis 7,14).

Quizás hoy sea un buen día para aprender sobre tu santo favorito. ¿Qué lo/la hizo especial? ¿Cómo difundió la fe? ¿Qué persecución sufrió? Quizás podrías hablar sobre los santos con tus hijos. ¿Qué santo comparte nombre con tu hijo? Como dice San Juan en la segunda lectura, todos somos hijos de Dios (1 Juan 3,2). El mundo que no conoció a Jesús no nos conoce a nosotros.

Al conocer a nuestros santos favoritos, sus vidas pueden inspirarnos a enfrentar la persecución o el menosprecio por nuestra fe, o al menos darnos la valentía para hablar de nuestra fe y tal vez cambiar la vida de alguien más.

Dear Parishioners,

On behalf of Father Bush, Angie, Brian and their family we would like to thank you for the friendship and kindness shown to us and the years you have shared your lives and family with Father Bush. We truly appreciate all the many kindnesses you gave to Father and our family throughout the years, especially since his retirement in 2019. We appreciate the many times you sent him a card, called to talk or check on him or stopped by to bring him his favorite dessert—anything chocolate! He appreciated the priests, deacons and faithful who visited and shared stories with him. He appreciated his “congregation” that attended his Sunday morning Mass that began at 9:27 a.m.—on “Bush Time.”

He was so proud to be at St. Luke's for thirty years and watch families grow daily in their faith and to be a part of their journey. Thirty years is a long time in anyone's life, and Father Bush was a constant at St. Luke's and in Nicholasville and Jessamine County.

May everyone continue to grow daily in their faith by the example that Father Bush taught us. Please continue to keep Fr Bush and our family in your prayers.

God bless you all,

Angie, Brian, and Family
