Iglesia Católica de San Lucas

Mission Statement

As Catholics committed to a sacramental life, we are called to be disciples of Christ and help one another as we journey to Heaven under the mantle of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Communion of Saints.

Guided by St. Luke, we evangelize by showing God's love, mercy, and generosity, through the traditions of the Catholic Church. We grow the faith through our love for the Eucharist and community outreach.

This Week's Reflection

Reflexión De Esta Semana

Third Sunday of Advent

The Prophet's Profit

Old Testament prophets were not very popular. Most were killed or exiled because they challenged people to follow the commands of God. John the Baptist suffered the same way. So what kept the prophets going?

First of all, the prophets had faith in God. They believed that God spoke through them, that God would protect them and support them. Second, they had patience. They kept going when people rejected their preaching. Some prophets had to be patient with their own weaknesses.

The third gift of the prophets was hope: That by keeping God's commands, God's people would be renewed, along with all of creation. Our first reading is an example of such hope, with its descriptions of deserts becoming gardens and the sick and disabled being healed and strengthened.

So what do we learn from those prophets? First, we need to keep our faith in God strong. If you go to church once a week, the bare minimum, it would be like exercising only once a week and thinking that will keep you in shape. Second, we need patience and not just with our kids. We need to be patient with ourselves and with God. Some people stop going to church because they don't see any spiritual growth in themselves. So be patient; don't expect to become a saint right away. Finally, the reading from Isaiah gives us hope that God will open our eyes of faith, clear our ears to hear His word, (Is 35:5) and "meet him with joy and gladness" (Is 35:10).

Tercer Domingo de Adviento

La ganancia de un profeta

Los profetas del Antiguo Testamento no eran muy populares. La mayoría fueron asesinados o exiliados porque desafiaban a la gente a seguir los mandatos de Dios. Juan el Bautista sufrió de la misma forma. Entonces, ¿qué impulsó a los profetas a seguir adelante?

En primer lugar, los profetas tenían fe en Dios. Creían que Dios hablaba a través de ellos, que Dios los protegería y apoyaría. En segundo lugar, tuvieron paciencia. Perseveraron cuando la gente rechazó su predicación. Algunos profetas tuvieron que ser pacientes con sus propias debilidades.

El tercer don de los profetas fue la esperanza: que al cumplir los mandatos de Dios, el pueblo de Dios se renovaría, junto con toda la creación. La primera lectura es un ejemplo de esta esperanza, con sus descripciones de desiertos convertidos en jardines y de enfermos y discapacitados sanados y fortalecidos.

Entonces, ¿qué aprendemos de estos profetas? Primero, tenemos que mantenernos firmes en nuestra fe en Dios. Si vas a la iglesia una vez a la semana, lo mínimo requerido, sería como hacer ejercicio solo una vez a la semana y pensar que eso te mantendrá en buena forma. Segundo, necesitamos paciencia, y no solo con nuestros hijos. Necesitamos ser pacientes con nosotros mismos y con Dios. Algunas personas dejan de ir a la iglesia porque no ven crecimiento espiritual en sí mismas. Así que sean pacientes; no esperen ser santos de inmediato. Finalmente, la lectura de Isaías nos da la esperanza de que Dios abrirá nuestros ojos de fe, nos aclarará los oídos para escuchar su palabra (Is 35,5) y nos recibirá con gozo y dicha (Is 35,10).

THE MEMORARE

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.
