Diversify how organizational initiatives are communicated

Can you hear me?

Employees were invited to provide optional responses to several open-ended questions during the survey. Your employees shared 29 comments. Here is a random sampling of their responses:

It is very apparent that the leaders of this organization care about their employees, both professionally and personally. They operate with integrity, care about you more as a person and invest in your personal and professional growth, and it's very organized. It's an extremely healthy work environment and it's a peaceful, happy place to be.

BIS Benefits is the best employer that I have had. When they say they are going to do, they will deliver. They advocate for their employees and will do anything for them (within reason) work-wise or personal.

I work for the best company. They work hard, care deeply about their employees and clients, and also make work fun and engaging. It's a special company and I am honored to be part of it.

BIS continues to communicate how valuable each employee is to the success of the company. Leadership sincerely cares about each one of us, professionally and personally.

Amazing organization, the leaders and staff are genuine-real. You feel like you can be yourself. Everyone REALLY cares about the work we do!
