Dear Professor Cooper,

Hope this finds you well.

I wish to thank you for the erudite and practical suggestions contained in your Paper on the captioned matter. By way of the update, please note that I spoke to Chief Officer [REDACTED] who was impressed and in concurrence with your recommendations, and thus indicated that he would provide new instructions to amend the draft [REDACTED] Bill and [REDACTED] Bill to this effect.

In this connection, I advised that he liaise with the Registrar of Lands to ascertain any practical concerns which may arise from incorporating the Paper's recommendations and thereafter engage the SG's advice on any legal considerations required to be taken into account in the formulation of new policy instructions for the drafting of the relevant legislation.

Please note further that while I end my tenure with the Portfolio today, it would be remiss not to reiterate my appreciation for your sharing of insights on the drafts Bills on which I have worked as well as the useful guidance on the way forward with those Bills.

Best regards,
Ryan
