

AUGUST WITNESS

2025

Friends-

I can't believe it's already here: the start of a new school year! As we trickle into the new routines that this brings for all of us—school zones, earlier mornings, whatever school brings—there is so much to remember going on at your church. From backpack blessings and praying for our partner school to Bible studies and info-sharing, it's all coming at top speed.

You'll find information about all the things happening this month at our church inside this newsletter. One thing I want to highlight, however, is the All-Church Info Meeting on August 10 at noon. During that time, a team of people will share information with you about some exploration they are doing regarding the Single Accountable Structure of church leadership. As part of the process to decide if our church can benefit from restructuring the administrative leadership of the church, this meeting will help the team get a pulse for questions you might have and things we need to be sure to consider. We would be so grateful if you'd make time to join us! When the team is finished with their proposal, they will bring it back to the church body again for a vote, so being informed now can help us all.

If you have any questions, please feel free to let me know! I'd be happy to point you to any of the people serving on the SAS Exploration Team as well.

Looking forward to seeing you all month long,
Pastor Jenna

Make a Joyful Noise—Your Way!

Hi church family!

I'd love to help you discover the many ways you can worship through music here at our church. All ages and skill levels are welcome—no audition or prior experience required

Where you can plug in:

Chancel Choir – leads traditional worship with rich hymns and stirring anthems that draw us closer to God.

Praise Team – our modern band adds upbeat energy to contemporary worship and always has room for new singers, instrumentalists, and tech helpers.

Bell Choir – a collaborative ensemble of ringers who create beautiful, shimmering layers of sound with handbells and chimes.

Ukulele Choir – a fun, inter-generational group where anyone can learn an instrument, laugh together, and share joyful music.

Whether you feel called to sing, play, ring, strum, or serve behind the scenes, there's a place for you. Shoot me an email or catch me after worship, and we'll get you connected.

Let's make music—and memories—together!
