

FEBRUARY WITNESS 2026

WYLIEUNITED
METHODIST CHURCH

Dear Wylie UMC Family:

It is such a joy to have had the opportunity to share ministry these weeks while Pastor Jenna has been on family leave. There is so much positive energy and ministry going on, and so many deeply committed people who have clearly found a meaningful place to belong and from which to serve.

I have been struck by the distinctiveness of Wylie UMC's witness amid the many other churches that surround us in our city. This is not in any way to cast aspersions on those other churches, but it is to say that we can confidently move into the future, confident that who we are and how we witness to Christ matters to our community. We have something our world needs.

I like the way one commentator put it: We can either project a "fear the world" approach, or we can offer a "love your neighbor" approach. In the first, the focus is on what's wrong, who's to blame, and what you need to do to protect yourself from it all. It really amounts to circling the wagons in self-protection, anticipating a coming apocalypse.

In the second, it trusts that this is truly God's world—a world God is present in and loves unconditionally—and that my response is to find a way to love like Jesus loved and to see, relate to, and love our neighbor. In this way, we open our arms and welcome the world in, building God's kin-dom right here, right now.

Long may we be such a winsome and neighbor-engaging place of worship, fellowship, and love. I look forward to handing the reins back to Pastor Jenna this coming month, and to continuing on this journey with "all y'all" as a part of this faith community.

Every blessing,
Pastor Jeremy

January was a great month to start the new year. LAP students were happy to be back with their friends, and families were happy to get back into routines. It's hard to believe half of this year has gone by already. We have already started learning songs for our spring program.

On February 5, we will have a special visitor talk about our teeth; she may even have a fun goody bag for us! Try to guess who this may be!?

LAP students will enjoy Valentine's parties on February 11 and 12, sharing valentines with friends and goodies in the classrooms.

Registration for the next school year starts in February as well. Please help LAP spread the word.

God bless, and thank you, WUMC, as always, for the support of the LAP program.
