

Friends,

What a full and wonderful August it has been at Wylie UMC! As summer winds down and a new school year begins, our church family has been busy showing up, serving, learning, laughing, and growing together.

We kicked off the school year by celebrating our students with back-to-school posters for nearly 40 children and youth, reminding them that they are loved, supported, and prayed for as they begin a new year. August also brought our Town Hall Meeting, giving us space to share, dream, and look toward the future together. We're grateful for the ways our church family continues to faithfully discern where God is leading us.

We also gathered for Fifth Sunday Fellowship & Serve, sharing a meal, building relationships, and then heading out together to serve our neighbors. What a joy to be a church that doesn't just gather, but goes! And in the midst of it all, our regular programming has continued—from women's gatherings and youth activities to children's programming, worship, and more. Our building has been full of people, laughter, conversation, prayer, and connection. Your service to our church and our community has been an absolute gift!

August reminds us that church is more than an hour on Sunday morning. Church is a community that shows up for one another. We're grateful for this church family and excited for all that God has in store for the months ahead!

All the best,
Jenna

Teachers have been busy since August 4 and 5, when they attended a conference in McKinney to begin completing their annual training hours.

Fun fact: Early childhood education teachers are required to complete 24 hours of training each school year!

Over the next couple of weeks, teachers came in to help set up their classrooms. Take a walk through the children's hallway and visit the classrooms upstairs and downstairs. They look wonderful and are full of life!

On August 17 and 18, teachers attended in-service training at the church, where breakfast was provided. Everyone appreciated the delicious meal.

Meet the Teacher was held on August 24 and 25, and classes began on August 26 and 27. Despite a few tears, both events were a great success, with plenty of smiles and laughter.

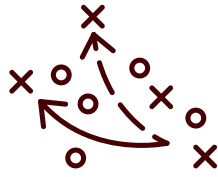

We are excited and ready for an amazing school year!
