

WEEKEND READINGS

Third Sunday of Easter
Tercer Domingo De Pascua

The Resurrection of Jesus is not just something that happened long ago, it is a living truth that changes everything about how we see our lives today. Because He is risen, hope is stronger than fear, and love is stronger than death. Like the disciples on the road to Emmaus, we may not always recognize Him walking beside us in our daily struggles and questions. Yet when we listen to Scripture and open our hearts, His presence begins to stir something deeper within us. In the breaking of the bread, we are reminded that He is truly with us, nourishing us and drawing us closer to Him. This encounter is not meant to stay in one moment, but to transform how we live each day. We have been redeemed at a great price, and that means our lives have purpose, dignity, and direction. With renewed hearts, we are sent forth to live with joy, hope, and the quiet confidence that the risen Christ walks with us always.

La Resurrección de Jesús no es solo algo que sucedió hace mucho tiempo, sino una verdad viva que cambia todo sobre cómo vemos nuestra vida hoy. Porque Él ha resucitado, la esperanza es más fuerte que el miedo, y el amor es más fuerte que la muerte. Como los discípulos en el camino a Emaús, no siempre reconocemos que Él camina a nuestro lado en nuestras luchas y preguntas diarias. Sin embargo, cuando escuchamos la Sagrada Escritura y abrimos nuestro corazón, su presencia comienza a despertar algo más profundo dentro de nosotros. En la fracción del pan, recordamos que Él está verdaderamente con nosotros, alimentándonos y acercándonos más a Él. Este encuentro no está destinado a quedarse en un solo momento, sino a transformar la manera en que vivimos cada día. Hemos sido redimidos a un gran precio, y eso significa que nuestras vidas tienen propósito, dignidad y dirección. Con el corazón renovado, somos enviados a vivir con alegría, esperanza y la certeza tranquila de que Cristo resucitado camina siempre con nosotros.
