

WEEKEND READINGS

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Vigésimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Following God’s call can place us in situations of rejection, discomfort, or even danger, as it did for his prophets and apostles. In the face of opposition, we are reminded through the that God hears our cries and rescues us when we call out to Him in faith. We are encouraged to run the race of faith with endurance, keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, who suffered yet remained faithful. Jesus Himself reminds us in the Gospel that His mission brings not peace at any cost, but truth that challenges and even divides. True discipleship demands courage, a willingness to stand firm even when it sets us apart from others. God does not abandon us in this struggle; He strengthens us through grace, and the witness of those who have gone before us. Let us ask for the perseverance to follow Christ fully, trusting that He will transform even our trials into new life. Seguir el llamado de Dios puede ponernos en situaciones de rechazo, incomodidad o incluso peligro, como sucedió con sus profetas y apóstoles. Ante la oposición, se nos recuerda a través de la Palabra que Dios escucha nuestro clamor y nos rescata cuando le invocamos con fe. Se nos anima a correr la carrera de la fe con perseverancia, manteniendo la mirada fija en Jesús, quien sufrió pero permaneció fiel. El mismo Jesús nos recuerda en el Evangelio que su misión no trae paz a cualquier precio, sino una verdad que desafía e incluso divide. El verdadero discipulado exige valentía, una disposición a mantenerse firme, incluso cuando eso nos separa de los demás. Dios no nos abandona en esta lucha; nos fortalece con su gracia. Pidamos la perseverancia para seguir plenamente a Cristo, confiando en que Él transformará incluso nuestras pruebas en vida nueva.
