

WEEKEND READINGS

Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time
Vigésimo Primer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

God's love is universal. He gathers people from every nation, to witness His glory and share in His salvation. This joy is echoed in a calling we all have to praise the Lord for His steadfast love. The Letter to the Hebrews reminds us that God’s discipline is not punishment but a sign of His deep care, forming us into stronger disciples. In today’s Gospel, Jesus challenges us to "strive to enter through the narrow gate," urging us not to grow complacent in faith. Salvation is a gift, but it also demands our response. Through humility, perseverance, and daily effort our faith grows and can bear fruit. Being part of God’s kingdom is not about status or background, but about relationship and commitment. May we live as true disciples, walking the narrow path with trust, discipline, and joy.

El amor de Dios es universal. Él reúne a personas de todas las naciones para que sean testigos de su gloria y participen en su salvación. Esta alegría se refleja en el llamado que todos tenemos a alabar al Señor por su amor fiel. La Carta a los Hebreos nos recuerda que la corrección de Dios no es castigo, sino una muestra de su profundo cuidado, que nos forma como discípulos más fuertes. En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos reta a “esforzarnos por entrar por la puerta estrecha”, invitándonos a no caer en la comodidad espiritual. La salvación es un regalo, pero también requiere nuestra respuesta. A través de la humildad, la perseverancia y el esfuerzo diario, nuestra fe crece y puede dar fruto. Ser parte del Reino de Dios no depende del estatus o del origen, sino de la relación con Él y del compromiso con su camino. Que vivamos como verdaderos discípulos, caminando por la senda estrecha con confianza, disciplina y alegría.
